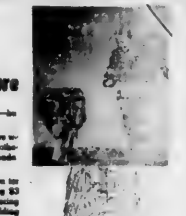
Western oil is serving 100 million source U.S. dollars this year, dollars we don't have to pay out for oil imports. This means money to buy equipment we need—things that cannot be grown or made in Canada. Near year Alberta oil should save 145 million U.S. dollars!

Then, too, the search for oil is making a big new market in Alberta for things the rest of Canada has to sell. The oil industry is spending millions a week in the west. Across the nation this means a tempting new industries, expanding plants, creating jobs, paying wages, building homes.

And as the prairies petroleum product prices can home than they would have been if oil had not been found. Prairie consumers saved more than $30 million last year. Anything that helps prairie prosperity helps all Canada.

Oil is important to us all. Move oil means a higher standard of living.

The search for oil is rewarding, a costly business, some disappointing. But the job is rewarding forward. And new-found oil is changing our future . . . promising a better, brighter future for Canadians—men and boy alike!



bringing you oil is a big job . . . and a costly one

Ford and Mercury stock car models covered themselves with glory by their economical performance in the first post-war holding of the Grand Canyon Economy Run, February 26th. The grand sweepstakes award was won by a 1950 stock model Mercury sedan, which turned in a phenomenal 25.504 miles-per-gallon mileage, and a 61.2711 ton-miles-per-gallon record in covering and a 61.2711 ton-miles-per-gallon record in covering the gruelling 751-mile course at an average speed of 40.016. In Canadian gallons the figures would be 31.85 miles per gallon and 73.58 ton miles per gallon.

A 1950 Ford DeLuxe stock model also grabbed off first place in its class by defeating the other two class entries, Chevrolet and Plymouth by nearly two miles per gallon. The Ford averaged 23.32 miles a gallon and 48.57 ton miles per gallon at an average speed of 41.34 miles per hour. The cars competed over a gruelling course that took them through the broiling heat of Death Valley and below sea level altitudes to the 7000 foot mark on the rim of the Grand Canyon.

— S. A. W. B. —

When we are fined or sent to jail by the courts of the land, either having pleaded ignorance of the law, we feel that there has been a miscarriage of justice. Yet it is a commonly known fact that "ignorance of the law" is no excuse. It is no excuse because the details of our laws are available to all who will make the effort to obtain them. Likewise, pleading ignorance of current legislation is no excuse and has as a guinea pig when pleading in favor of or opposition to, some particular piece of legislation. All this information is available. Ask and you shall receive. Seek and you shall find.

You are all aware of, or at least you should be, recent legislation brought down in our Alberta Legislature regarding Optometry. Associations, organizations and individuals allegedly carrying on a campaign of intimidation have been and are being implemented to do away with free morally illegal practice. There is no room in the deal just the same. Individuals were forced to bear the (I feel sure) representations made to the governments in power which practice the irony cannot be denied. Optometry has been and is becoming so prominent should it not be said that illegal practices which are detrimental to the welfare of the people. Legislation should have been made long ago to remove to the point, they do also serve many others the area of Optometry is not the only problem. Any organization which practices in closed shop fashion is not the friend of our worst offenders is the Medical Profession. Not all of them by any means, but the one in which locally we are the most vitally concerned at present.

Is there anybody, including ourselves who will deny that the Medical Profession is carrying on a closed shop organization? If there is let me tell you that however natural such a conception may be, it is nevertheless erroneous. The fact is too true.

Did you know that only a certain number of accredited universities are allowed to graduate? Why? To limit supply in short demand. Did you know that there are certain restrictions on doctors selling up practice within a specified distance from each other (Doctors' Ward) Protection. There are only two of many practices numerous which the medical profession is able to use to their own selfish ends. The last mentioned can best be proved by the Statutes of Alberta ... either by an honest admission by the Medical Association itself (if it will) or by legal research. I at least have it on high authority.

I am deeply interested in ... going to continue to keep it ... and that of this page ... injustice, however slight ... that support may be ... this province is being ... a small group of medical ... motive can only be ... selfish and greedy one ... right the wrong being inflicted upon the people of this country.

Since nurses can't get doctors because there is a so-called shortage. Our entire Flagstaff Municipality Medical Scheme, one of the heretofore considered operating schemes in western Canada is threatened with complete collapse simply because the Medical Assn. is selfishly opposed to the idea. There are doctors I am quite sure who are willing to step along with medical schemes, but who dare not for fear of reprisals from their own associates.

It is past the time when a change is in order.

I am going to appeal to all groups and organizations within the reach of this newspaper to hold meetings in protest of this unfair practice. Flood the Hon. Mr. Gerhart's desk with resolutions, protests and petitions. Make him so sick of you that he will never in self defence. Resign our local M.L.A. Mr. Fee with the same sort of propaganda. Make him sick of you too. Public opinion is a strong weapon. We don't use it enough. Get busy all of you. Let's see if we can't put this medical racket on the run, safe beats.

Your Board Of Trade

(By Canadian Chamber of Commerce and Edward F. Fee)

What is a Board of Trade? A group of citizens devoted to prove that the man misses all the time in our district? Public spirited men who have got together to see that the town enjoys the highest standard of living? Supporters of free enterprise and freedom vigorously opposing collectivism and bureaucracy? Businessmen and farmers trying to bring new business and more people to this area? These are some of the more commonly held ideas about the Board of Trade. Whatever is said about the Board of Trade, there is one thing sure—it is or should be one of the most important organizations in the town. With the churches and the municipal government, Board of Trade forms a strong pillar supporting the welfare and progress of the community.

The purpose of the Board of Trade somehow nearly every citizen in ... town. In Killam the Board of Trade ... takes an active part in sports by ... sponsoring all hockey, baseball and ... football clubs. They had the commu... hit last year in the building of one of ... the finest arenas in Alberta. The ... Board of Trade itself (if it will ... ever) is not responsible for ... various projects designed to improve ... the farming community. Among these ... are seed cleaning facilities and the ... 7-8 testing of stock. Municipal war ... of the Board involves an active part ... in fire prevention, clean-up campaigns ... and a host of similar projects. A recall section was recently formed to ... improve relations among the business ... places and between the businesspeople ... and the public.

The interests of the Board of Trade ... is not however, confined only to the ... local matters. It has provincial and ... federal interests as well. The federal ... chamber undertakes public relations ... programs to explain the virtues of ... private enterprise, and the case for ... private initiative and the traditional ... Canadian way of life.

An organization of this kind is a ... stabilizing influence on a community. ... It is instrumental in forming opinion on municipal, provincial and national affairs. It brings about greater understanding among various segments of the community and it unites a community in a common purpose to live the best it can afford. Because the support and ... of all ... citizens is ... for ... the Board of Trade is ... and ... to live ... The Board ... deserves your fullest support.

Delegation To Flagstaff Critical Of Medical Scheme

A delegation composed of Jim Whaley and Art Gellan of Alliance, Arthur Falla and Jim Hallam from Sedgewick, Ivan Pearson of Killam, Gerald Oberg of Forestberg and Carl Colvin of Meeta and Mrs. Galletly Jr. and member of Fairgrove, interviewed the Flagstaff council on Tuesday in regard to the Medical Plan. All there had been no evidence of progress toward securing doctors in the place of those resigned, the delegation was much concerned as to the future and Carl Colvin was asked to explain the purpose of the delegation, and he stated the lack of information had occasioned so many rumors that it was thought the facts of the matter would be presented to the people.

Mr. Magee—Why didn't the people call at the office for information?

Mr. Colvin—If they had no better idea than I did, they would have been waiting their time.

Mr Magee was questioned as to what the Council had actually accomplished. They were informed that considerable had been given to the changes in the Plan, the amount to be paid to the doctors had been raised at Three each. Then it was decided to contact one of the doctors again. He was asked if he would be willing to make a trip to Eastern Canada. There had been a further delay of a few days after his return before the letters were gotten out to prospective applicants. Two letters were sent to doctors who had been contacted prior to the annual meeting, but who had not replied to previous letters. Also three letters to new men. Mr. Colvin asked for definite dates as to when the letters were sent out. The Secretary rose to go for the correspondence but was then stopped by Mr. Hayes. However, the letters were made available by request for inspection later. It was hoped they were mailed on March 22nd, one month and four days after the annual meeting.

Ivan Pearson of Killam stated that he had been in contact with one of the doctors who had interested him children's ward and also to make two quits for the children's ward.

The next meeting will be at ... Mrs Wilf Forster, roll call ... to ... exchange of home plants or ... A dainty lunch was served by ... hostess at the conclusion.

Thro' The Window At Lougheed

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Watts and baby Mr. and Mrs. Lou Watts and baby of Athlone and Ray Jack of Camrose spent a week end with the J. Jacks at Lougheed. This was Watts Jr.'s first visit to Lougheed.

Mr. and Mrs John Harding from Camrose have are spending the Easter holidays with his parents the Lloyd Hardings and grandma Ingles.

Angus Grieve was a Camrose visitor last week.

Mrs. Edith Oliver entered Hardisty hospital last week for a minor operation. We hope to see her amongst us again soon, completely recovered.

The Ivan Yeakam family has returned from a few days business and pleasure in Edmonton.

Mrs. Lillian Hamilton dropped in the other morning with a bit of an Easter bun twang we thought he was preparing to farm, and when Mrs. Martin appeared likewise, we were sure of it, but when Albert came down to with an Oxford accent that finished us, around like a London cop, we we thought it was time to investigate, to discovered each had become the proud possessor of a snappy new English Ford from the Barnier assortment. Congratulations. It seems the tires had been inflated before shipment from Britain, which gave the boys a bit of English air, but by the time the car is on say an gns he hangs his head every time he remembers a filling station. Feels like he had played a dirty trick on the old company.

Mrs. Pilgrim has returned to her farm to prepare for spring operations. Had a successful winter in the lake hearing industry in the North somes.

Miss Mae Rossbeacher returned home from Camrose with the Whitbeck family to spend a three weeks leave from her duties as the University hospital with brother Jim on the farm.

Joe Ingvaldson of Barrow dropped in the other day. Joe is a firm believer in advertising. Seems some time ago he got a nice little bit of equipment for his garage and then advertised the best garage equipment between Edmonton and Wainwright. Says he knows somebody read it because a short time later his place was broken into and most of it stolen. To date none has been recovered.

Mrs Robt. Kirkman and children of Irma are spending the Easter holidays at the F. Kirkman home.

Mr and Mrs Bert Swain (nee Mae Pyle) announce the engagement of Doven spent Easter holidays with her parents the Geo. Crothers.

Good Friday, and what a day for a holiday. If it is a sample of what Easter Sunday will be, bang goes the Easter parade. As I heard one young Miss apply put it—

Alas my Easter bonnet!

I must sew my flags on it

If I don't want mourners

In the Easter parade

Well at time of writing we still have a day to go and anything can happen in Alberta in 24 hours so let's hope the weather woman has a few tricks up.

Miss Emery of High River is spending the Easter holidays with the Rev. Grainger family.

Saw Angus Grieve with his concealed clothes on heading for a class reunion at the Olds School of Agriculture. Have a hunch practical educational means. Where other guys load their trucks with rock to get traction on slippery roads, Angus loads his with snow. Says by time roads are dry the snow has melted and not into the loading. Wonderful what three months overalls.

The farmers are beginning to get worried a bit about a late spring, and the present weather is not doing very much to encourage them. I'll add my bit of cheer by reminding them that the late spring has generally been the profitable one. While I have not done any active farming lately, I remember the year I plowed up on the quarter in the Pembina. The spring that year was so late I could almost fall asleep in the Easter Monday, but the crop that fall was so heavy I had to run another half section to stook it on.

The Redmans and Joyce Van Mee returned to their respective homes to bed last. Wayne accompanied the parents home for Easter but will be back in time for school. Odd time-table service between the towns.

Jeanette Birchill played an April fool trick on 7 of her friends the other evening them to her birthday party. The usual good eats, games ear wax, father. Phyl Hudson—Calgary.

Mrs. A. Erickson and son Georgie of Clarenbeken stopped for a few days visit with her daughters Mrs. J. M. Butcher.

The Frank Kirkmans and the Ross Kirkman family of Irma were guests of the Jack Kirkmans at Hardisty on the 2nd. Oh boy, turkey and stuff

The Lougheed social evening held in the Hut on the 3rd could be described as the word 'success' Every thing was enjoyed - eats and pastimes and musical numbers. Unfortunately the pictures arranged to did not arrive and consequently had to be cancelled, but a fun outdoor there were 70 or 80 present. It may have been better attended but I presume to observe tears in Billy's and Sid's eyes as Ned Butcher rendered that sad favorite, "Will Ye No Come Back Again.

I had a visit from Mac Routledge last week which I thoroughly enjoyed, as she left with me a small book, she had compiled. You might call it a biography of her family in all parts, but I would rather refer to it as the evolution of the Lougheed district for, while the Routledges predominate it is not Routledge but a word and photo picture of this district from 1 hollwee 1905 to present, and takes to the different types of settlers and changing conditions over a 65 year period. I was surprised at how it compelled back to mind that I had almost forgotten to my almost 50 years on the project. We get on in the habit of taking today for granted, forgetting what it took in the frustrating to make today. The pictures show the original Routledge shack on the bald prairie, the second house and then the modern home with bridge, lawn and landscaped grounds; the ox-drawn plow; the horse hitch, to the tractor power; the old steam thresher with its army of men and horses, to the sleek combine of today; and lastly and backward and the first Linzie, to their modern transportation; the pioneer school to the Central block. It is time game hunting for meat for dinner to today for sport; the old helpful community spirit to present of every man for himself attitude; the trek or forty or more miles to Youngstown or Wetaskiwin for mail and provisions (mostly on foot) to the twice a week Rural Delivery of today. It is truly a remarkable little booklet; a real work of art by an artist, is the only way I could describe it. I only wish I had the facile pen or typewriter to describe it more fully, but unfortunately my education was sadly neglected in my youth (through myself I admit.) Thanks Mac. As I finished it I felt as though I had been listening to 'John Fisher Reports'

Miss Vivian Harding is spending Easter with her parents Mr and Mrs Chas Harding and Grandma Ingle.

Bill Groenhoge and family from Camrose are spending Easter with his parents the Chas Lawrence's. Bill will accompany them back to Calgary for a short visit

Wes Cantwell of old Chinook was spent Easter with the Mc'ing.

We had hoped to add a column or the corners and guess over the holidays but all seemed too busy to talk about anything but new-year's and about to be weds, but we did succeed to see Mrs Fred Gibbons at reception at Harry Buttons, 109 Hunt Winners, Mrs Abraham Nolan at with brother Don a boy story in to bringing him from Edmonton to see the grandparents. Then we fell for the graduation at Vermilion. Yes, we have to think up a hello and a goodbye to 2 times a week. Mrs Elsie Mennerry is visiting with brother. Phyl Hudson—Calgary.

Mrs J. Curtis received word last passing of her sister Miss Edith Smith on March 29th at Strathcona Co in her 94th year

Mr and Mrs Knut Bergseth announce again a baby—a girl—born on visiting friends and relatives

Marj Lawrence spent a week-end with her parents Mr and Mrs Lawrence, but was not able to attend it over Easter.

LOUGHEED HOME AND SCHOOL ENJOYS PROGRAM

The regular meeting of the Lougheed Home and School Assn. was held at their school on April 6th. The class of Mrs. Marion presented a variety of interesting exhibitions of their talents. The program consisted of various songs, recitations, readings, duets and a display of handicraft.

The physical training program was also used. The next meeting will be on May 2nd, and a cordial invitation is extended to all to attend

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

The Telegram
The Irresistible Agony Of Relief When Another Can Commit to Blame.

By Charlotte McCarthy

OPENING the telegram, Zoe smoothed roughly. What could John possibly have to tell her that wouldn't keep until tomorrow night? She had texted her and longed for the moment?

Then as she read the few typed lines, her face turned an ashy white. Fighting for self-control, she deliberately read it aloud, slowly, every word.

"The paper crackled in her fingers. A fog in the telephone in the living room had crashed like that the night that John had asked her to marry him.

Was it really true, and not part of a hideous nightmare?

The words blurred then stood out in clear relief: "Helen and I were married today. Will call off plane on the home, for the time being. I'll see you tomorrow night, John."

How dare he do this to her! And cruelly unmeaning! The home they were building. How unbelievably unlike John! Or was this the real John? Was the person she loved the man she had believed him to be?

They and you could do that . . . the clever psychologist. Build a person in your mind, your heart a mirror to reflect the perfect image

Her engagement ring felt heavy and cold. A steady, chill circle on her finger. She had the telegram on her father, carefully, as if it were something extremely precious that might shatter if dropped, and slipped the ring off her finger.

Helen had married Helen, whom she had believed to be her friend, had married John, knowing that he was engaged to her; knowing that their home was almost built. It occurred to her that Helen had been getting rather strangely this past week, but since Helen rarely confided in anyone, she hadn't given the matter any thought. Even when John had mentioned giving Helen a lift into the city with him, since she was going in that direction, Zoe

She wouldn't tell her father for a while . . . better wait until tomorrow, when she might feel stronger to bear the added weight of his sorrow for her. Would John face her alone, or perhaps, and the thought was infinitely painful, would Helen come with him?

This couldn't be happening! Her wedding dress hung in the closet, its shimmering veil a gleaming thing of beauty. All the linen, carefully folded in her cedar chest. What did people do, when ever-present they didn't have the strength to go on living?

Somehow she got through the day, through the night, and when the chill grey of dawn was in the room, her mind became a cervical blank, and she slept. How often she had been amused by heroines in novels, who replained their pallor by powder and a headache. And yet the excuse was valid.

She was standing beside an open window that night, the crumpled telegram in the pocket of her dress. A soft, spring breeze perfumed with the promise of blossoms, brushed crystal fingers across her face. There was a car stopping in front of the house . . . a familiar car.

John was alone, and he got out and hurried up the walk. Her father opened the door, no doubt glad to hold dad, she wondered desperately, when she heard the casual warmth of his greeting?

He now her then: "Iris, you're as white as a ghost!"

What did he expect, she wondered wryly. "Your wire came," she said woodenly, handing him the yellow sheet of paper. "I didn't show it to dad. Perhaps you'd like to read this to him."

His expression inscrutable, he took the telegram. "Why, darling, there's been a mistake! I phoned in the wire, and it should have read Helen and Bi. You know Bi, the chap who's building our home? But how could you know . . ."

The exquisite agony of the relief that sang through her veins was almost too great to bear

"I should have known, John," she said, humbly, gratefully.

Sask. To Test Hybrid Corn
REGINA — Possibility of introducing hybrid corn in certain areas of southwest Saskatchewan is now being advised by agricultural authorities in the province.
It is understood that the provincial field crops branch will likely distribute hybrid corn seed under its forage crops program for the first time this year.
Promised sufficient supplies will be available this seed would be distributed at once.
One strong feature of the hybrid corn is the fact that the seed can be used for grain and the plant grown on a smaller-than usual. In this way, the land could be utilized to grow a forage crop
The plant could also be grown as an emergency crop on land which is not being summerfallowed
The hybrid corn seed is derived by crossing other corns. The seed production is fairly plant, but it is much more corn than other varieties, and has been given increasing gravity as a result of its use in the United States
Tests have shown that the plant gives a fair yield even under dry conditions. In a very dry year, the hybrid corn may produce more forage than any other type of crop if it is properly handled and the weeds kept out. The chemical 2,4-D, said to be of considerable assistance in controlling weed growth where the seedbed is prepared.
The plant is recommended for use in areas where the frost hazard is not too high and the nights not too cold.

Preparation For Citizenship

MORE THAN 83,000 REFUGEES have settled in Canada since the movement of displaced persons from Europe commenced after the war. The International Refugee Organization, which has been in charge of finding new homes for displaced persons will begin to terminate its activities next June, and it is feared that at that time there may still be some 100,000 refugees without homes. Mr. Arthur Rucker, deputy director of the International Refugee Organization visited Canada recently and his remainded Canada suggestions for the part it has played in solving this great problem.

* * * * *

Have Found Homes Here

Displaced persons have found homes in all parts of Canada, and have taken up work on farms, in factories, on construction projects and in many other fields. Among them have been some highly trained men and women who have entered professional life in this country. The powerful influx of new citizens in the natural which has taken place for many years and officials are being made to assist the newcomers to learn the language as quickly as possible and to become familiar with Canada's history institutions and its institutions. Provincial departments of education and other interested agencies early on this week, which helps new citizens to become adjusted to the life here and prepares them to take out Canadian citizenships which they may do after a period of five years.

* * * *

Many Booklets Are Sent Out

The Citizenship and Immigration department of the federal government is also taking part in this work and is assisting provincial departments of education in maintaining classes for new citizens. Booklets have been prepared by the government outlining these English and French, and about 20,000 of these have been distributed to the provinces. In addition, a number of pocket-sized books have been issued to those who are studying matters arising from citizenship courses. Another booklet entitled The Land, Our History, Our Government and Our Resources has also been prepared and some 23,000 copies have been distributed. New citizens throughout the country are being urged to take advantage of the opportunities offered to them, to learn the language and to qualify themselves for citizenship. This positive attitude toward the matter of assuming responsibilities for the benefits of citizenship is the best way to ensure success and should receive the support of all those who are in a position to assist with the work.

To Get More Locker Plants

WINNIPEG — Another 20 quick-freeze locker plants will be built in Manitoba in 1950 to serve an additional 8,000 rural families, C. M. Fleming, Winnipeg, secretary of the Manitoba Quick Freeze Locker association, predicted. Probable cost will be $500,000.

Mr. Fleming made this estimate at the association's fifth annual convention held here.

"Manitoba already has 100 quick-freeze locker plants representing an investment of $2,500,000 and serving about 40,000 rural families he stated.

Although there are only four plants operating in Winnipeg Mr. Fleming foresees the day when there would be more production of "prepared meals" in quick-freeze plants in cities and towns.

Record Highways Program Planned

EDMONTON — Road building in Alberta this year will surpass all existing records in terms of budget figures stated. The estimate for main highway construction, capital and income account, is $13,745,000, a $2,950,000 increase over last year. This does not include the $2,000,000 recouped for construction of the Trans-Canada Highway nor does it include about $3,500,000 in grants for road construction to municipalities and improvement districts.

The large main highway construction figure composes nearly half of the public works department estimated expenditures, in capital and income account, of $30,595,000. This new department's expected expenditures make up the lion's share of the provincial budget.

Jobs Asked For Men Over 45

VICTORIA — Amendments to the Civil Service Act to give men over 45 and women over 40 the right to take government jobs was asked by Don Brown (Coalition, Vancouver-Burrard) in the legislature.

"It is tough treatment when businessmen and politicians tell breadwinners they are not wanted when they have reached 45," declared Mr. Brown.

"If they cannot get work, they will have to be looked after at the terrific expense of government and society as a whole."

Spring Floods Not Expected In Manitoba

WINNIPEG — Manitoba this spring should be free from serious floods comparable to those of 1948 providing precipitation through March and April is normal and average breakup conditions prevail.

This prediction, based on conditions existing as at March 1, 1950, comes from the water resources division of the development services branch of the dominion department of resources and development.

The analysis emphasizes that any variations, either favorable or unfavorable, from normal breakup conditions could change the forecast materially.

Like the common cup, the common pocket should be banished. Both are potential disease spreaders.

Canada May Produce Jet-Propelled Cars

OTTAWA —Canada is developing a jet-powered railway engine and thinking about building jet automobile engines, a government scientist disclosed

Dr. D. C. MacPhail, head of the National Research Council's aero-nautics and gas turbine section, said a government-sponsored project to build a gas turbine engine for a locomotive has progressed slightly beyond the paper stage.

Considerable work on the car engines already had taken place at McGill University in Montreal and MacGill shortly would produce a small turbine that could ultimately replace gasoline power plants, he said.

MacPhail and other scientists under his direction forecast that successful completion of the jet-propelled railway engines would open a new era in world railroad transportation. They said that if the locomotives proved to practicality it would replace diesels on many types of rail hauls, particularly on long-distance trips.

The Research Council was working on a locomotive turbine in preference to one for cars because at the same time was devoting "a lot of project analysis" to the question of building autojets, MacPhail said.

How I Subdued Wild Fiery Itch—

By Mrs. [illegible] Ont. (As told to Mrs. [illegible])

Every night when I went to bed I'd start to scratch. The itch was terrible. I'd scratch and scratch. I'd scratch myself raw. I'd scratch until I bled. I'd scratch until I was ashamed to look at myself. I'd scratch until I was ashamed to look at my husband. I'd scratch until I was ashamed to look at my children. I'd scratch until I was ashamed to look at my friends. I'd scratch until I was ashamed to look at myself in the mirror. I'd scratch until I was ashamed to look at myself in the mirror. I'd scratch until I was ashamed to look at myself in the mirror.

Then I got Zemo. Zemo is a clear, greaseless liquid that dries fast. It's not sticky. It's not greasy. It's not messy. It's not smelly. It's not anything bad. It's just good. It's just what I needed. It's just what I've been looking for. It's just what I've been waiting for. It's just what I've been hoping for. It's just what I've been praying for. It's just what I've been dreaming of. It's just what I've been thinking of. It's just what I've been wishing for. It's just what I've been wanting. It's just what I've been needing. It's just what I've been craving. It's just what I've been desiring. It's just what I've been longing for. It's just what I've been yearning for. It's just what I've been aching for. It's just what I've been pining for. It's just what I've been sighing for. It's just what I've been crying for. It's just what I've been weeping for. It's just what I've been sobbing for. It's just what I've been moaning for. It's just what I've been groaning for. It's just what I've been whining for. It's just what I've been complaining for. It's just what I've been grumbling for. It's just what I've been fussing for. It's just what I've been fretting for. It's just what I've been worrying for. It's just what I've been stewing for. It's just what I've been brooding for. It's just what I've been mulling for. It's just what I've been pondering for. It's just what I've been musing for. It's just what I've been meditating for. It's just what I've been contemplating for. It's just what I've been considering for. It's just what I've been thinking of. It's just what I've been wishing for. It's just what I've been wanting. It's just what I've been needing. ## Tear Invasion Rat Spotted In Edmonton EDMONTON — A lone and peaky scampering rat has thrown the province of Alberta into a flurry.

The rodent spotted and summarily dispatched in Edmonton, is the first known member of its species to be at large in the district.

The little invader may be the forerunner of a devastating horde which could cause damages estimated at up to $15,000,000, and destroy the province's reputation as the only place in North America where the pest does not appear in numbers.

GOOD FOR FERNS

To make your ferns grow rapidly and look green and bright, put two raw oysters, chopped fine, into the pot with the fern about every two or three weeks, and give plenty of water.

A survey shows that 20 men out of 100 wear hats since 6%.

Crow's Nest Pass Mines Produce 63 Per Cent. Of B.C. Coal

FERNIE, B.C. — Sixty-three per cent. of B.C.'s 1949 coal production of 1,510,192 tons came from Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company operations at Fernie and Michel Collieries. Michel produced 612,986 tons and Fernie 339,097 tons, for a total of 1,-134,000 tons.

The province's total was slightly higher than the 1948 production of 1,500,000 tons. Crow's Nest Pass was slightly lower than its 1948 intake of 1,289,185 tons. A third mine in the Crow's Nest area, the Big Mountain at Corbin did not operate in 1949.

Initiative is originality in motion.

Churchill Chamber Of Commerce Asks Land Sale; Not Lease

CHURCHILL, Man — The Churchill Chamber of Commerce has asked the federal department of mines and natural resources that local residents be given permission to make outright purchase of town lots.

At present all lots, residential and business, are held on one-year leases from the department's land branch. Chamber officials said the insecurity of such short-term leases has had a restraining effect on development in the town.

They said a few persons wish to invest more than a maximum in some of business places because of the regulations.

THE LIMIT

VANCOUVER — Advertising is one, but there's a limit. Vancouver city council turned down a suggestion that two refuse containers with advertising on their sides be placed on city streets.

A Candid and Honest Discussion on a Delicate Subject

FOREWORD: This is a frank attempt to give you in non-technical language certain information pertaining to a long-dread and frequently annoying physical condition. A condition which not only affects countless thousands, but makes these thousands suffer untold discomfort, pain and embarrassment. For too often this condition—at first ignored in itself—leads to Nature's warning of more serious trouble to come. It's believe every man or woman who suffers from this condition owes it to these and to himself or herself to read the statement below.

Lowhards Proprietors, Ltd.

Since the dawn of civilization, medical men have carried on a ceaseless war. Not only to save human life, but to relieve—to better still, prevent some of the physical afflictions of humanity and the heartbreaking human misery they cause.

Thus, when a famous physician or a noted scientist makes an important therapeutic discovery or perfects a new surgical technique, the news rings round the world. Yet, even while these front-page discoveries are taking place, some of the most widespread human afflictions—"hay fever"—"the common cold"—"athlete's foot"—certain digestive disorders—are undergoing constant scientific study and laboratory scrutiny by men the public never hears of . . . simply because these "everyday" maladies do not seem serious.

Among these seemingly commonplace afflictions are "piles". Those who suffer from this amazingly widespread trouble are burdened with a double hardship.

They yearn for relief, but hesitate to seek it — merely because of "false pride", the shameful embarrassment of seeking advice or treatment often makes it preferable to suffer in silence. There is no "drama" about piles. No glamour — no glory — no front-page fame for the man who finds a way to help pile sufferers. The subject itself is mostly taboo. It is seldom, if ever openly discussed. But no man or woman who has known, or now knows, the agonizing embarrassing torment of aching, burning piles — the loss in business efficiency, the mental pressure, in good health and vitality — the sheer enjoyment of life — will deny that a safe and sure method for relieving this condition, could well be a far-reaching contribution to human health and comfort.

* * * *

WHAT ARE PILES?

Piles, as such, are not a primary ailment but result from some condition preceding or associated with them. The contributing conditions that cause piles never originate in the parts affected.

In their early stages, piles are inflamed, distended rectal veins—actually "varicose veins" in the delicate membranes of the rectum. One of their primary causes — surprisingly often, in fact — is hepatic congestion or torpidity of the liver which results in constipation, everyday constipation in ordinary layman's language, here is what happens:

1. When the liver is unduly congested and its normal function is slowed by sluggishness the flow of blood to the liver from the lower bowel is retarded and dozens of small rectal veins become swollen and distended with blood.
2. This sluggish, congested liver action usually causes constipation.
3. With the start of constipation, hard clogging excess feces in the lower bowel and colon.
4. These hard masses press upon and irritate or bruise the sensitive, distended rectal veins.
5. Blood thickens and stagnates in the bruised area. The tiny veins become severely inflamed, over-sensitive, lumpy and thus excruciatingly painful.
6. The pain from these blood swollen veins, plus aggravation of the condition itself, results in "self perpetuating". The condition increases the itching, burning pain and soreness, which in turn further increases the constipation — which in turn tends to further enlarge and swell the swollen veins which then become pile tumors! It is a vicious circle.

This is why, from the very onset, piles are rarely corrected on their victims know all too well.

* * * *

But the agony and embarrassment of piles are only the beginning — really Nature's first call for help.

If help does not come in time, if the vicious circle is not broken, there eventually may be only one answer — chronic piles or the surgeon's knife. It's a big price to pay for lack of knowledge!

* * * *

Yet, today in many cases, radical action may not be the only answer. More than a half-century ago an able and qualified professional man began an intensive study on the whole subject of piles — their cause and effect. He found a remedy by which that vicious circle may be broken. This man compounded and tested, in his own practice, many different combinations of ingredients. He finally derived a formula so medically proven-element which showed amazing results in 88 out of 100 consecutive cases that came to his personal and professional attention. Proving that piles yield to this improved combination, he finally gave his formula to an outside cause — his good fortune was an internal remedy, small tablets taken by mouth.

* * * *

Now, we have been asked by many well-informed persons "how in the world can small tablets taken with a glass of water three times a day help to relieve piles?" But just stop and think as we repeat — "piles come from congested conditions inside the body" — never from an outside cause. Therefore it is sensible to attack piles from the inside where the trouble starts. To combat piles you need internal medication that actually relieves hepatic congestion, stimulates the liver and bile, gently and effectively cures constipation and wills to improve the circulation of blood in the lower bowel. And as nature treatment improves blood circulation in the lower bowel the healing forces of Nature take hold and promote a healthier condition in the sore, painful areas where piles are found. That is why you need internal medication if you want to relieve the unnatural condition that is the real cause of piles. It is on that sound reasoning this man originated his internal treatment for piles.

* * * *

He gave his formula the trade name of Hem-Rold and began to use it, not only in his own practice, but also to furnish Hem-Rold to his friends and acquaintances. Seven years later, in 1936 to be exact, he sold the formula and name, Hem-Rold was then offered to the general public.

* * * *

The remarkable results through the use of Hem-Rold are a matter of record and extended over the last 20 years. Millions of packages have been sold in various countries throughout the world. Hundreds of unsolicited testimonials by mail, and telephone orders.

* * * *

SPECIAL NOTE: The makers of Hem-Rold sincerely believe that pile sufferers everywhere will welcome this information. Of course some persons, in very rare, long standing, neglected cases should consult a physician. But for the average pile condition, we know nothing better than Hem-Rold to give you the comfort and results you desire.

* * * *

ACCEPT THIS SPECIAL OFFER NOW

We want Hem-Rold to prove itself to you in your own case, so we make this generous offer. Secure from any drug store a package of Hem-Rold, 36 tablets, 30 full days treatment, at the amazingly low cost of $1.50. The 36 tablets exactly as directed for 30 days. If at the end of that time you are not delighted with the results you get, return the unused portion of the package to the druggist and your full purchase price will be refunded without question — you are the sole judge. If you risk nothing — not even the cost of Hem-Rold, (a few pennies a day,) if you are not completely satisfied. And you do stand to gain quick and immeasurable relief from the pain, discomfort and embarrassment you have endured. So why suffer, risk costly and perhaps more serious methods when inexpensive Hem-Rold may give you quick, safe, speedy and pleasantly pad the help and benefit you seek?

* * * *

It would show a serious lack of interest in your own personal comfort for you to continue to suffer the pain, itching and torment of piles when so good a remedy as Hem-Rold may be had at small cost. And if you are asked for more than 36 days' use are needed to prove to you. Try it and see for yourself.

Personal Stuff

— By A. W. —

Governments and the members which constitute governments are a prime targets for the barbed jibs of individuals and newspapers alike. But when we consider some of the nonsense that goes on in our federal and provincial houses it is no wonder. I could point out all kinds of rather stupid moves that have been made but let's just pick out one or two for little attention.

1. There is the filibustering that has been going on at Ottawa by the usual militant group of M.P.'s from B.C., the result of which is nothing more nor less than the holding up of the incorporation of Alberta Natural Gas Company's franchise to pipe natural gas to the west coast. Had this not been contrived or had the wisdom of exporting gas from the Province. But for a few members of a body so highly regarded as our ex House of Commons to carry on such a childish comedy does not speak too well for the calibre of men we are sending to Ottawa.

2. The House of Commons allowing a small group of industrialists to talk them into stopping the importation of cheaper Japanese shirts which can be sold in Canada at prices which in turn are already too high. And now pressure is being brought to bear to stop certain other imports which may impair local economics. All this in favor of the fact that Margarine oils are allowed into the country for the manufacture of a product which is in direct competition to one of our basic industries—dairying.

3. Mr. Manning, in speaking on the County Act at the recent session, in answer to the opposition, stated in effect: The only way to prove the merits of the County Act system was by actual application and experience. That may be partly true, but I have been wondering if Mr. Manning would apply the same theory to himself. Say for instance he wanted to find out whether or not he would sink in mid-ocean. Would he jump overboard from the Queen Elizabeth?

Becker-Bennett Nuptials Performed At Camrose

The United Church in Camrose was the setting for a pretty wedding ceremony recently when Miss Doreen Marion Bennett became the bride of Mr. Wm. C. Bennett of Killam was united in marriage to Stanley Becker, youngest son of Mr. John Becker and the late Mrs. Becker of Redville. Rev. Mr. Bennett gave his daughter in marriage, in his ceremony that was performed by Rev. Cann.

The bride's gown was Chantilly satin and styled with a round neck, bustle back and with slip-point sleeves. Her finger tip length veil was held in place by a beaded bandeau. She was attended by Miss Rosella Becker, sister of the groom who wore a blue taffeta floor-length gown with a pink finger tip veil and carried a bouquet of red flowers. The best man was Mr. Don Barrett.

Mrs. Bennett's choice for her daughter's wedding was a navy blue tissue faille frock with navy blue accessories and a corsage of roses.

A reception for 35 immediate relatives was held in the banquet room of the Allen hotel. Decorations on the table included a 3 tiered cake.

For going away the bride chose a navy blue gabardine suit with gray accessories. Following a honeymoon at Calgary and Banff Mr. and Mrs Becker will reside at Regina, Sask.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

THE CURVE :: By Harold Helfer

YOU run into a lot of things all right when you're a newspaper reporter but what I remember most is a story I handled in a routine way. Just another tragic death.

It happened some years back. I was airing for the ride, in a highway patrol car, looking for feature material.

It had been a rather quiet day, all told, and we were cruising nonchalantly along when a crashing noise broke the stillness.

"Uh, uh," the patrolman said. "Dead Man's Curve". He stepped on the gas.

Dead Man's Curve was a hairpin turn atop Red Mountain that has since been eliminated but it was a hazard in those days. Year in and year out it has taken a steady toll of casualties—and when we arrived there a few minutes later we saw that its grisly list would have to be added to.

A car had failed to negotiate the curve, had smashed through the guard railing and had tumbled down 300 feet to lie on the mountainside.

The officer and I could see the trail of dust that the automobile had wrought in its plunge. Sliding and skipping, we made it as fast as we could.

We found the car on its side and by it a man and woman. The woman, we saw, her gown clawed and her dress torn away, had crouched and she and man was kneeling by her, whispering frantically, "Myra, Myra . . ."

The officer's trained eye sized up the situation. "I'm going for a doctor," he said to me.

"I'll stay behind," I said.

The officer sped back. I knelt down alongside the man and said, "Everything is going to be all right. There'll be a doctor here in no time at all."

But I knew that there wasn't much that a doctor would have to do for him—except maybe put a few stitches on to a forehead cut—and that there was nothing he'd be able to do for her.

The man looked up at me with bewildered eyes and said, "She won't talk to me, my wife won't talk to me . . ."

I put a hand on his shoulder "Everything's going to be O.K."

As I spoke, the woman's eyes opened slowly. Staring into her husband's face with intense, unfocused eyes, she said: "Oh, Fred, Fred, darling . . ."

He stroked her hair and kissed her on the lips.

"Darling, darling, Fred," she said. "I want you to know that Harry never meant anything to me It was always you."

"Sure, sure," he said soothingly

Suddenly she winced with pain and he lifted her head in his hands. He kissed her again and said, "Maybe it's best if you don't try to talk . . ."

Her eyes still fixed on his face in the same unblinking way, she said: "I want you to know . . . to be sure . . . that it was never Harry . . . only you, Fred . . . only you."

Her eyes remained opened wide and staring but she was very still now.

The man looked up at me and said, "She's dead, isn't she?"

I nodded.

With one hand under her head and one under her legs, he lifted her up. "What are you going to do?" I asked.

"It's a little muddy here," he said. "I don't want Myra to lay in the mud. She was very particular about things."

He stumbled with his burden. Then very carefully he laid it down. He took off his coat and placed it tenderly. Then he stood up.

"Myra always liked to be warm," he said. His eyes had lost their belligerence. "She's going to have the finest grave that money can buy. And every Sunday I will come by and bring her beautiful bouquets. She was fond of posies . . . There's only two things I wish," he said, speaking almost to himself.

"One," he said, "that it could have been me instead of her . . . And the other, that my name was Fred instead of Harry."

Thro' The Window At Lougheed

All roads lead to the Mynshaw Sale on Friday April 21st, just North East of Lougheed. This sale was postponed from the 17th

May we present a bouquet of many more happy years together to Mr and Mrs Arvid Peterson, who host week celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary. Congratulations.

Miss Corrine Matheson and friend Betty of Camrose spent Easter with friends in town.

The Art Drapers and Mr and Mrs Chas Beckmire visited relatives at Okotoks during the holidays

Kristi Bjerke is taking a few days holiday in Edmonton, vital Nimrod is looking after his farm meantime.

Mr and Mrs Geo Marlow and Gordie spent Easter with her relatives at Stroome

The Ken Newman family is taking a well earned rest in Edmonton. Lee and Ernie are in charge of the Cafe during their absence

Mr and Mrs F. Spachiha of Calgary spent Good Friday with her brother and Mr. Lawley. The Art Lawleys spent Easter with his folks at Metiskow.

Mrs Jay McClure of Edmonton is spending a week at Canmore with her daughter Marie. We are glad to hear that Ray is almost good as new again after breaking his leg.

Mr. Bertie Hurst and two boys and Allan Painter spent Easter with the John Barthel family.

Mr and Mrs Arvid Peterson returned from spending Easter with relatives at Bashaw. Lee Dee and Jean motored up to complete the remainder of the school holidays

Miss Annie Kuhlwein of Edmonton spent the Easter holidays with her parents the Steve Kuhlweins.

Owen Clemens, at present employed in Edmonton and a friend spent Easter at the parental home.

Does history repeat itself? Years ago the ancients set up a golden calf and worshiped it. The way the price of beef is skyrocketing it looks as if the packing houses were giving us a repeat performance. Sending the ordinary wage guy will bow down and worship a bit of gravy. It will be about all he can afford. The meat industry might well forget the golden calf and remember the moral of the goose and the golden eggs. There is a limit to everything.

We saw our old townsman Charlie Olliles spending last week end in the old town after wintering in Edmonton. Chas. has quit farming but says he hasn't learned yet. If I could look as well as he does on it I would never mourn.

Speaking of the coming and going of others, I might mention we also had a quiet and pleasant holiday. Mr Pryor Br. Mrs Lee Johnson (nee Ella Gillies); Mrs Ken Pyper now children dropped in on Shirley Mae and caught on in the midst of the family wash. Yes, 4 grand children and a family wash at the same time is my idea of a nice quiet holiday. Mother was in to dinner and visited, shaving washing machines and tubs around with one of those 'clear the decks for action the enemy is bearing' looks (some of them still are). Well we finally convinced her there really was no disgrace in having a wash day as some of the best families do it. Peace and harmony being restored we proceeded to enjoy a nice lunch and visit (oh yes it has been a nice quiet week end so we enjoyed every minute of it

Rasmus Bergseth of Edmonton is spending a few days with son Knute and family. Rasmus is one of those who had sense enough to quit and enjoy life while he still had something to enjoy.

The R. Lokens family formerly of Irma and Kitscoty have located here and Mr Lokens will have charge of the garage work of Smith Bros. (Lovely soul) who intend making extensive alterations and additions to the present garage. Smith Bros. have done much to give a business appearance to what until lately was the deserted end of our village. The new highway 13, once our main business district seems to be gradually reverting its own again

Mrs Bert Durrant and 3 children visited her sister in law Mrs. H. Thomas Jr. last week

Thought I was going to join the ranks of flying saucer witnesses last week when hearing a strange noise I turned suddenly but it was only Kioth Painter whimsing along with his new paddle jumper. Not a bad looking buggy but like a woman a bit of paint might improve it

Congrats to Elmer Linder who on the 16th passed the 75th milestone looking as though he would have no trouble making the century. Our best wishes to you Elmer

Slim Herb at his annual spring job of opening drains and culverts, and Marlow and another guy giving their orders worth of advice. Herb says the Council should put the culvert on top of the road instead of under it, as then they would be easier to get at in the spring.

Harry Barton and Clarence and Ty Lien and Bernard Leichlahl were big mens visitors to the city last week

I got quite a shock Saturday when a black maria stopped in front of the office. Couldn't figure whether it was the police or the undertaker coming for me, but it turned out to be only the Frank Hoopers at Sedgewick who dropped in for a chat when I enjoy out. But I don't like the look of that wagon they drive. Too suggestive

It's nice to see our Delhilli correspondent on the job again. We missed you.

Mrs Ray McCracken returned last week from a visit to Penticton B C and reports all the Harold Nelsons doing fine especially the latest arrival Raymond Arthur.

We're Big Spenders!

It doesn't seem we're careless, it's just that in the course of turning out those fine Ten-made cotton products you know so well, we have to buy a great many things from all parts of the country.

We need packing cases and cardboard cartons, construction lumber, paper, paints and core sands, coal, sulphuric acid, caustic soda, oils, lubricants and a hundred and one other things which we buy from fellow Canadians who grow or make them.

In addition to this the 12,500 men and women working in our plants, earn many millions of dollars a year in wages, dollars which are spent on foodstuffs from the farms of Canada, grains, coals, hogs and poultry, fish from the fisheries on both coasts and the Great Lakes.

We are the customers of our fellow-Canadians just as they are our customers. We're proud to have a part in Canada's economic life by buying the goods which other Canadians grow, make or provide.

The Need For Moisture

THERE ARE FEW PLACES on this continent where the importance of soil moisture is more fully realized than in those parts of the prairie provinces where drought conditions are a constant threat to the crops. Moisture affects the soil in two ways. It is necessary for growth, and in addition proper soil moisture preserves the land from loss of top soil through drifting. On the other hand, too much rain causes swollen rivers and streams to overflow their banks and in many cases to carry away the valuable soil. Foresters are also a part in both problems. The planting of trees on the prairies is one important way of preserving the soil moisture by the snow-trapping and drifting.

Lay Blame On Lack Of Trees

Canadians and in heavily wooded areas the taking out of large numbers of trees is blamed for the loss of water which would otherwise be stored in the forests and gradually released in the lower levels of land. In a monthly letter issued recently by the Royal Bank of Canada under the title Lets Depends on Water" the writer says that control and conservation of the water of the Western plains begins on the Rocky Mountains. Because depletion of forests there increases the rate of spring flooding and while clearing down rivers the water which should seep into the ground to maintain underground reservoirs " the letter states.

Efforts Made By Farmers

A great deal has been done on the prairies, by farmers and by federal and provincial departments of agriculture to combat the lack of soil moisture. Contour ploughing, tree planting and attention to proper drainage have been employed by individual farmers to conserve the moisture on their land. Leading agriculturists however, point out that the problem cannot be regarded as of concern only to the farmers or to the people of Western Canada. Many of the factors involved in moisture conservation reach far beyond the boundaries of the farm, or even of the provinces concerned. In addition, food production, which is directly dependent upon soil moisture is undoubtedly of national interest. It is apparent that it is linked with many matters of importance to the country as a whole and as such should in no way be looked upon as a problem for the farmers alone.

Like To See Dutch Farmers Coming Here

OTTAWA — Holland has a surplus of farmers and could easily stand a migration of 10,000 or more a year to Canada, His Royal Highness Prince Bernhard of The Netherlands stated here at a press conference.

In return, he declared, the Republic of Indonesia could absorb many qualified Canadian civil servants, engineers, constructors and industrial experts as its program to rebuild its industry and economy following years of war and suppression by the Japanese.

Dealing at some length on the farming situation in Holland today, Prince Bernhard declared that already 30,000 Holland farmers and descendants have migrated to Canada since the end of the war and, frankly, he would like to see many thousands more come to this country.

"We do not wish to lose our people," he told the press conference, "but we have a situation today where there are more farmers than farm land available. If we do have to lose these people we can thank of no finer country for them to migrate to than Canada."

How About Trim Togs For Ladies Who Curl?

(By A. T. Cress in Ottawa Citizen)

I have finally come to the head glamorous ladies of Ottawa are. They are the lady curlers. That they have fine characters and a beautiful disposition I never doubted. But they do nothing for my eye. The teams are worn flashy, as if just there by the girl scouts. They are bundled awkwardly in coats. Their shapeless skirts have no more glamor than a potato sack. You intuitively feel that their every lunge would be undressing, in place of trim, nylon sashes are ugly, utilitarian bum flaps seem to manage to get a certain dash to themselves when dressed for curling. But a woman, on her knees scrubbing, and peering at you through fallen strands of hair, is at least appealing at the lady curlers.

Knee-length skirts have brought beauty to the lady golfer. Gorgeous Gussie with her lace underthings has pioneered the way to new glamor in tennis. Lady baseball players have put new oomph into softball. But lady curlers seek lady wrestlers still do not seem to be able to attain glamor in their playing clothes.

TRADE SURPLUS FALLS SHARPLY

OTTAWA.—Canada's international trading surplus dropped sharply in January to $11,000,000, compared with $74,000,000 in December and $19,200,000 in January a year ago.

Western Nurse Becomes Matron In Chief Of Army Medical Post

OTTAWA — A Manitoba-born nurse who saw front-line service in the Second World War, has been elevated to the top feminine medical post in the Canadian Army.

She is Major Edna E. Andrews of Battle Heights, Sask. Her appointment as Matron in Chief, Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, was announced by Defence Minister Claxton.

She succeeds Major (Principal Matron) Dorothy F. Balmaine of Prince Albert, Sask. and Winnipeg who retires after holding the post since 1946.

Born in Miami, Man., Maj. Andrews graduated from the Saskatoon City Hospital in 1931. She later took post-graduate studies at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, and gained appointment to the R.A.M.C. in 1941.

Like her predecessor, Maj. Andrews went overseas in the Second World War. From the end of 1944 until March, 1945, she served as Assistant Matron at No. 6 Canadian General Hospital during the campaign in Northwestern Europe. Later she became acting matron with No. 16 General Hospital. In 1945 she was made an associate of the Royal Red Cross.

After the war she served at the Calgary Military Hospital and with the detachment of the Northwest Mounted Highway System and from June, 1946, until her present appointment was employed at the Toronto Military Hospital.

Maj. Balmaine was well-known throughout the service. A graduate of the Winnipeg General Hospital in 1930, she took post-graduate studies at Prince Albert, Saskatchewan and the University of Minnesota.

She was appointed Assistant Matron of No. 3 Canadian General Hospital in 1941, and proceeded overseas the following year. In 1943 she was made an associate of the Royal Red Cross.

She later became matron at No. 9 Casualty Clearing Station and served throughout the Northwest European campaign. Her promotion to major followed, along with an appointment as matron of No. 6 Canadian General Hospital and later as matron at No. 11 Canadian General Hospital.

Following the war she served in Canada as a principal matron and was appointed Matron in Chief four years ago.

Italy To Simplify Travel For Tourists

ROME—Abolition of tourist visas between Canada and Italy is under discussion with action probable this year it is disclosed by Canadian and Italian sources.

Between 3,000 000 and 3,500,000 visitors—16,000 of them Canadians—are expected during Holy Year activities in 1950 and for most of them Italy already has cut a lot of red tape. Her tourist trade is expected to total about $200-000-000 in 1950.

During the last year she has abolished tourist visas for visitors from Norway, Denmark and Luxembourg and is about to do so for Belgium. She has relatively long-standing tourist agreements with the United Kingdom, France, Ireland and Sweden.

Canadians in 1949 brought $750,000 to Italy whose total tourist-dollar intake was $20,000,000.

Building Seed Boxes, Bird Houses In Spare Time

During the spring months there is usually plenty of spare time. A pleasant and useful activity for those who are handy with tools is making seed boxes for raising young plants.

Discarded packing boxes or fruit crates can be cut up to advantage for this purpose and a good supply of these little seed "flats" will be very useful later on.

Another line of work at the making of bird houses and garden furniture. A few well-constructed nesting boxes placed about the garden will result in attracting birds and a sturdy bench or two, even though not of fancy construction, will provide a resting place where the garden owner or his friends may sit and enjoy watching both the birds and the flowers.

INVADED BY CATS

The governor of the Tower of London recently appealed for aid to protect the ancient fortress in an invasion of a horde of wild house cats which have been living in London's bombed buildings.

Assiniboia, Sask., May Get Gas

ASSINIBOIA, Sask. — There is some possibility that Assiniboia homes may be piped for gas in the near future. Representatives of the Mid-West Pipelines Co. of Lethbridge recently made a survey of Assiniboia. The propane gas would be piped into the homes in the same way as natural gas except that it would come from a central supply located at Assiniboia. The supply would be replenished by shipments of gas by rail. Meters would be installed in individual homes.

FUNNY And OTHERWISE

An Arab was being taken in a car across a very bumpy section of desert. He had won the prize race at last the car overturned and the Arab was thrown clear. Instead of turning in wrath on his driver, he picked himself up and apologized profusely.

"I've not learned to ride one of these things yet."

Gazing out upon the windswept, blizzard street, a housewife said, "Somebody's coming up the side-walk—and pushing the cutest little snow-plow."

"Yep," said her husband. "That's your brother returning from the garden party. I didn't want to lend him last spring."

Does your husband forget your anniversary?"

"Never. I remind him of it in June, and again in January—and always get two presents!"

Mabel: "Ruth told me I was the eighth wonder of the world."

Ebenezer: "And what did you say?"

"I told him not to let me catch him with any of the other seven."

When Tommy handed in his homework, the teacher examined it very closely. That looks suspiciously like your father's handwriting," Tommy," he said. What have you got to say?"

"Well, sir," replied Tommy, after a long pause "now I come to think of it, I used his fountain pen."

"Today our teacher asked me whether I had any brothers or sisters, and I told her I was an only child."

"And what did she say?" asked his mother.

"She said, 'Thank goodness!'"

The parson was engaged in a small job of home carpentry, and not doing so well. Presently Willie, the boy next door, came over to watch him.

The parson was pleased and encouraged.

"Willie," he said, "are you watching to see how it's done?"

"Naw," replied Willie. "I'm waiting to hear what t'ell my father you said your thumb."

PRICES FOR LUMBER IN B.C. SHOW INCREASE

VANCOUVER. — Lumber prices in British Columbia have shown a sharp advance, it was reported.

A log demand from the United States, coupled with loss of production during the winter when many mills were forced to close, is a major factor in price boosts.

Sacrifice Glamor

R.C.M.P. Commissioner Defends Switch From Horses To Machines

OTTAWA—Efficiency is better than glamor. So Commissioner S T Wood head of the R.C.M.P. defends the switch from horses to machines He admitted that the R.C.M.P. these days consisted mainly of unmounted police "But we get a lot more work done without horses than with them," says the supreme head of the Mounties

Commissioner Wood was replying to the Ottawa Board of Trade and other bodies who complained that the Mounted Police had stopped being mounted, thereby losing their lure.

Asked if he would put the Mounties back on horses Commissioner Wood said he would give considerations" to the matter if and when it was officially brought before him.

"We do have R.C.M.P. in summer in front of the House of Commons. But I'll admit they are not on horseback. I have no doubt that American tourists are disappointed. But I am just wondering if I would not be open to criticism if I obliged men and horses to stand on Parliament Hill in the summer heat

"I would however give every consideration to the matter. I would proceed to put the R.C.M.P. back on horses if the people of Canada so desirable. I am not going to commit myself however on that matter."

He gave one good reason why the R.C.M.P. had turned to machines.

"Mounted Police in motor cars may be less glamorous but they certainly are more efficient. We can cover greater territory by machines than by horses.

"Best comparison I can think of is the Red Serge uniform. They used to have horses like we did; they converted to motor equipment and now I believe they can cover three times as much territory. The same principle applies to us. With machines our R.C.M.P. can cover much more territory.

"The truth is machines are more efficient than the horse. The truth in efficiency is better than glamor."

Scald (1/2 cup milk, 1/2 cup granulated sugar, 1/2 tsp. salt) and cool. Cream (1/4 cup shortening, stir in 1 egg) Add (1/2 cup lukewarm water, 1 tsp. granulated sugar) stir until sugar is dissolved. Sprinkle with 2 envelopes Fleischmann's Fast Rising Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 minutes, then stir well. Add mixed half cup milk, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 tsp. salt, 1/2 tsp. cinnamon, 1/2 tsp. nutmeg, 1/2 cup raisins and 1/4 cup candied peel. Work in (4 cups sifted all-purpose flour) to form top of dough. Cover and set in warm place (85°F.) to rise. When double in bulk (about 1 hour) punch down. Roll out (1/2 inch thick) and cut with floured biscuit cutter. Place on greased pans, cover and let rise again (about 1 hour). Bake at 400°F. for 15 minutes. Ice with confectioners' sugar icing and decorate with candied cherries and citron. Makes about 2 dozen buns.

Control Smut in Oats and Barley

Today, it is possible to treat seed grain rapidly, effectively and at low cost. Consequently, there is no reason why the farmers of Western Canada should allow the smuts of oats and barley to steal hundreds of thousands of dollars from them in 1950.

The Need. Clear-cut evidence of the need for positive action on the part of western farmers with respect to the control of the coarse grain smuts will be found in the accompanying table. (Results of most tests made by Line Elevators Farm Service).

Seed in Farmers' Seed Samples of Oats and Barley

| Crop and Year | % of Samples Examined | % Containing Smut | Smutted Seeds |
|---|---|---|---|
| Oats | | | |
| 1947 | 2,800 | 89.5 | 36 |
| 1948 | 2,405 | 89.9 | 31 |
| 1949 | 1,500 | 82.2 | 21 |
| Barley | | | |
| 1947 | 627 | 94.6 | 46.3 |
| 1948 | 1,300 | 92.4 | 28.5 |
| 1949 | 1,100 | 89.2 | 20.1 |

Recommended Treatments. The seed chemicals (chemicals) recommended for the control of the coarse grain smuts are Ceresan, Leytosan and Panogen. On no account should the new dust treatment called ceresave be used on oats and barley for smut control. Ceresave just won't control the smuts of oats and barley, so why use it. Formalin, although it gives good smut control, tends to injure the seed, sometimes quite seriously. It is not recommended for the treatment of seed-grain.

Mercurous Cure. Seed of oats and barley should first be thoroughly cleaned and then treated with Ceresan, Leytosan or Panogen, according to manufacturers' directions. Be sure and treat the seed at least 7 days in advance of seeding. The mercury seed disinfectants are poisonous to humans and livestock. They must be handled with care. If you want to save dollars in 1950, treat all your seed of oats and barley for smut control.

The news columns of the country papers have again been carrying briefly accounts of the latest outbreaks in the Communist or Soviet dominated countries where they do not permit free elections by those people who would not withstanding the fact that they have real buildings owned by churches set aside the Dominion Day and withstanding, that armed forces offence and patriotism as in the latest outrages are described in the least degree by our newspapers it will be hard for our children to understand such acts.

These acts of injustice and oppression is beyond comprehension, and if those people cannot be controlled by our laws, let's admit defeat and tackle the problem from some other angle. Surely the lives of decent people be allowed to be endangered by a small minority group who by their own admission abhor most things which we hold dear and believe in our rights and just!

* * * *

I was more than pleased to send the other day that two of my pet theories are again coming under the ban me. The first one deals with an old Canadian flag. Some members of our government has again brought up the matter and wants to know who is being done about it. I would like to ask the same question. Canada is now grown up enough to be able to settle its own domestic affairs as far as the courts are concerned, and if we can do that why should it not fly its own distinctive flag proudly!

The second matter deals with our Senate, there more the question of the usefulness of that body is going the rounds and the idea of abolishing it is gaining in popularity. Just what functions it performs that Canada could not get done elsewhere at less expense is not known to me. The only sale as far as I can see has now become obsolete and superfluous

Of course Senate members cannot be just turned out without ceremony but they could be disbanded, pensioned off and send home. Eventually the pensions would cease, Canada would save money and get along just as well as she does now. Think it over.

THREE BUNDLES FROM HEAVEN were airborne again when they flew from Vancouver to New York on a TCA North Star Tuesday night. Shown are the Martin triplets, just six months old, Robert, Dorothy and Betty, children of Mr and Mrs R. L. Martin. They died, en route to New York City. Big brother Tommy, 4, also made the overs eas trip. Shown here are TCA hostesses Terry O'Neil and their proud mother. The triplets are the first carried by TCA. (TCA Photo.)

Lougheed Ball Club May Revive "Boomerang" Ball

The Lougheed baseball team held their annual meeting at the P. Hall office on the 14th, and following officers were elected for 1950:

President, H. Lounsez
Secretary-Treasurer, Norm Jack
Coach: George Sims
Manager: Con Ingalsbee
Captain: Ken Dunlop
Fin. Committee: Ted Hutchens, Lauman

With the lineup at latest the line has to date from three pre- viously made except the manager. Some Widents look how a season pussy willows. They do not know just something the location of the south yer spring training. They mainly meet their match in the Lougheimister tourney with games to first. (it has been anticipated) as were a few games pulled off over my estimate, as in my case days I was second to last in manager's position. could also but, I was a base at opposing batting, as at last as the umpire knew his name time on the ball when I was at bat after a bad start I found his swing wouldn't drop down to a very teenage later though I was very much having fun being the umpire, a pitcher I was the Schizoid one moment and then the next through the inconsistency to not (that's where I got the idea) I like to see with a ball league and I became interested in the baseball tournament, and as I had practiced it with a baseball team I became proficient. I had not played it but in the last game of the season worth league we were tied, games a and at the end of the 9th inning in the final the score was a pair of zeros. In the first half of the 10th second one I beat the opposing team (the Kinsth Hurals) with 2 hits and bonded the home. I was then back decided to use my boomerang still resorting to an old trick back did my hockey days, I pulled the catch and put him on first base. In each the first baseman for an extra man the field; winding up, my first threw out the plate clean for strike one. Then instead of continuing to the backstop it circled the batter two more, each time cutting the plate for a strike and then continuing on a first base where catcher caught it making it a strike-out, and being the on 1st base it was an out at first This is the only case on record a there being a strike-out and double put out on one pitched ball. Before the next season opened the boomerang ball was outlawed and I was relegated I quit the game and haven't played since.

April 16th saw the closing of a 10 day revival campaign in the Lougheed Church of the Nazarene, with Rev. Walter Markham the Evangelist

His ministry coupled with the fine musical talent of the congregation will also be attended. The cosmo-country and interstate radio broadcasts taken personally by the Evangelist were also clearly evening and proved a great attraction. The Rev. Markham's sermons on God and on the last Sunday a fitting climax to the revival.

Our personal thanks to all those who helped to make this meeting a success. — N. Grainger.

Thro' The Window At Lougheed

Mr and Mrs Bristy of Calgary visited over Sunday with his daughter-Mrs M Holmes, leaving Monday to visit his brother at Bawlder, Sask. then home via Gyen.

Mrs J W Black left for Calgary on the 18th where she will be a guest of a brand new grandson, born to Mr. and Mrs Lloyd Walmsley on the 15th. Our congrats and good wishes to the Walmsleys.

The Ward family of Bawlf spent Sunday visiting Lougheed friends.

We are sorry to hear that Geo. Aitchison of the M.M at Calgary is a patient in the Aberhart hospital, Edmonton, and hope it is not serious. His parents left last week to visit him. Our best wishes Gordie for the speedy recovery.

Mr and Mrs Fred Fisher of Hardisty visited the A. Shnerges recently. Mrs Fisher is attending her visit in town with Fred retained home. We hate to leave all those cool timers drop in and at least give me a hello. might explain that when I spend a cold timers I am not always impolite, that party is an 'shnitzel' man in his reference to the family's length of residence in the community. Just older Fishers were real pioneers.

Mr and Mrs H E Hustead of Lacombe spent a few days visiting friends here and Mr and Mrs Harry Pedersen. Allen to (though strangers) in town them a long and happy married life.

Mrs L. H Kells left for Calgary last week to be with her sister who is also in hospital. We are glad to hear that she is much improved.

Bert Whitehead must have had horseshoes in his pocket last week. He won a horse shoe pitching match and car at McCracken when it started to slip off the jack. He was able to throw himself out of reach of the car but not from the jack which pushed him from bottom to top, but when we consider how much worse it could have been we say, don't cry over spilled milk, for if it takes a bit longer to block it up.

In answering business places about town we see the picture of our young (old) ex-town girl Miss Jean Blair North in full cowgirl regalia, who is running for Queen of the Calgary Stampede, and what a queen she would make. The only thing that could defeat her would be absentee-balloting on the judges part. What a treat it would be to be roped by a queen like that. Good luck Jean, we are pulling for you and hoping that odd ticket for a worthy cause.

How Dan Yost doing about 30 to a gallon the other morning when his Mazda sailed on highway 12. The McCracken wrecker towed it in and the Whitehead boy soon had it back in shape again. Takes more than a stalled car to stop Don off the job.

Mr and Mrs Howard Pope and Mr and Mrs Hal James of Edton and Camrose guests Monday of last week. This was to celebrate the anniversary of a similar trip 5 years ago when Howard and Mary chauffered the new Mr and Mrs Hal to the home town on their 'Do You, I Do' trip. Congrats and may you make many more trips together.

Mrs Harry Pedersen has returned from a visit to relatives in Keoville, Spruce Grove and Edmonton.

Billie Robertson of Edmonton paid the old town and friends a visit last week while taking a forced holiday owing to a leg injury. His parents, Mr and Mrs Chas. Robertson, now residing in Edmonton are old timers of our community.

Mr. and Mrs John Newman have returned from a winter at the coast and are visiting our Kew ... a few days. Wonderful what a new angle to Alberta is with, as they are home now from Alberta.

Mrs Ned Belsher was an Edmonton visitor last week and the Jack Belcher family is preparing to move back to the farm as Belcher admits where they have purchased semi-farm close to their present holding.

If the amount of new machinery moved around the various newspapers is any criterion, buy what a crop we can expect this fall.

There have been so many wedding parties lately that when I meet a tall stranger I feeling behind I thought just another one. However discovered it was only Mad Signal-ear which the wind had stripped the fabric off from until it looked behind. Had a distress signal when last seen. Wind was looking for some rooting material from Gus Gates since ought to know better. Instead of putting the siren in front he put two of them on the rear. It just wandered about the country roads playing when one in a hay or grain hauler which Lewis results and wound up back in town.

Mrs R H Routledge and son Robin of Edmonton spent a few days visiting Jon and May at the farm. May returned in July with her and will spend the balance of her leave in hospital duties visiting the J Stevenson of Rocky Mountain House.

After years of research, I've just learned why the Lougheed Inn is the guy who is too old to get on the family allowance and too young to sing "Sweet Adeline" which Lewis results provided for. Can't something be done about it? Even like the game of playing both ends against the centre.

Still results lost to Edmonton and Cardin Wear last week as he hopped the plane for the highway 12. Oh well, it won't be long now.

You could describe the weather lately as a motorist's dream. There was everything in it, rain; snow, wind; sleet; frost in the above to what zoomed 40 below. I could describe it better with a few words from our favorite Saskatchewan days, but my editor says 'shave'.

A short spell of excitement that interrupted the top of one of the power poles down to the cross arm, by to school but luckily did not affect the village service.

Mr. and Mrs Albert Stenberg and the Arvid Petersen family motored to Red Deer last Saturday, and the Leslie Stenberg family to Camrose.

Ringle Pedersen left for Edmonton on Monday. Didn't know he had a car but he said he was getting some new plates.

Mrs J Deeves of Wetaskiwin is doing a bit of interior decorating on the living quarters of Ken's Cafe.

Mr. Cridgen's mother from Rumsey visited him last week end.

Thursday night saw about fifty friends descend on the elder Pruhs' house in a surprise party on the newly weds Ted and Iris Pruhs. During the evening was very pleasantly spent in the usual banter and sing song afterwards the hostess served lunch. After the usual good wishes the party broke up and all agreed it had been a very pleasant evening.

Don't be afraid if you see a car coming with a sticker on windshield if he hits you you'll know it was a safe car anyway. Why not carry a safety sticker on the driver or else? A loose nut at the steering wheel is just a bit more dangerous than a loose nut on wheels.

It almost looked like old days when last Saturday, Sam Lane, Lawrence of Calgary, Tom Lawson of Millet, Mr and Mrs Hepworth of Vancouver, R. W Robertson and Mr Graham who had just motored in from Ontario, all giving the old town the once over and all staying at the Lougheed Inn where we had a swell time. If we knowed you was coming we'd a baked a cake.

We watched the Scout Troop do a few hikeering up exercises, once direction of Master Rev. Grainger. The boys are making a very good showing and some day get their uniforms will make a snappy outfit, credit to themselves, their leader and Lougheed. Keep up the good work boys the result is worth it.

The social evening and whist held the 21st in the hall by the Elks was one of the best attended in years, 12 tables being in play. Winners were: Travel Prize: Mrs Lawley, Don Lane; Gents: 1st, John Birchill; Second, Lance Thorson; Ladies: 1st Between Mrs Petersen and Mrs Denham, the latter winning on the cut, Booby 1 and wife of Cochrane, Tom Lawson of Millet, Mr and Mrs Hepworth of Vancouver, R. W Robertson and Mr Graham who had just motored in from Ontario, all giving the old town the once over and all staying at the Lougheed Inn where we had a swell time. If we knowed you was coming we'd a baked a cake.

When a contrast. Last week with home full of grandchildren and no a dull moment. When they were not hollering at one another, mother a mother were hollering at them and father pulling at everyone. Tonight I'm baby sitter to Linda who is spend asleep, mother at meeting and daughter and 2 children back to Edmonton. I know how the poet felt when he wrote:

I feel like one who treads alone.
Some banquet hall deserted,
Whose lights have fled, whose garlands dead.
And all but he departed.

I know you'll pardon me while brush away a tear and hang up the sign again that reads 'Home Sweet Home.'

KITCHEN MEDITATIONS
Mending Overalls
By JANE DALE

The north wind roars around the house
Heaping a spray of snow across the garden walk.
The window panes are trimmed with silvery Brussels lace.
The tips of little fingers are white as chalk.
It is a cold February day
When springtime seems so far away.
The kitchen range is cherry red with forking.
And sends forth a warmth to fight the bitter cold.
The kettle sings and mother dreams while kneading
Father's denim overalls, milk stained and old.
He says he likes old garments best
And, mother's patches stands the hardest test.
The hours pass as mother sews and reminisces;
She recalls her mother mending thus in days gone by.
Her hands work on right through memory's door
A teacup of hygone scenes stand out before her eyes.

Oddities

A Pasadena, Calif., newspaper editor has a problem. Frederick H. Ramsden of the Pasadena Independent is in hospital for treatment of asthma. Doctors have told him it's an allergy —to blue grass, rats, dogs—printer's ink and newsprint.

COMMUNITY LAYING NEST

THE community laying nest for poultry houses is a development which is proving popular with many poultry men. We are showing a nest such as is used by the Poultry Department at Macdonald College. Dimensions of the nest are shown clearly in the drawing and a nest of this size will take care of the requirements for forty hens. For 250 hens it is likely that 6 of these nests would be sufficient. The nests are placed 22 inches above the floor.

The nests are built of matched lumber, the construction being of the roof frame type. That is, the ends are made up first with cleats along the top and bottom edges, the top and bottom boards being nailed to these cleats rather than into the end grain of the boards in the ends of the nests. The nests are set on 1-by-inch square blocks nailed against the wall of the house or against the partition between pens, and the upper ends are fastened to the wall by means of heavy hooks. Angle brackets of steel also could be used for holding them against the wall, fastened by means of wood screws.

The main advantages over the single compartment nest are the tendency for more than one hen to crowd into a single compartment most of the time, and the fact that the nest is so large a hen manoeuvres there are practically no dirty eggs and collecting is facilitated. Common amounts of shavings, or straw or sawdust is essential.

If the nesting material is permitted to become thinned, then broken and cracked eggs will result.

Drawing shows details for the construction for a community nest.

Gyro Ensemble Singers Broadcasts

Four broadcasts have been arranged by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation for the Regina Gyro Ensemble Singers as follows: Wednesday, Feb. 1, 8, 15, 22 at 7 p.m. M.S.T. The Gyro Ensemble Singers, organized a year and a half ago, have already achieved a reputation under the distinguished direction of Jean Gordon Bradley.

Saskatchewan, because of CBC policy in having programmes come from Winnipeg or Calgary, is seldom heard on the CBC. The effect has been that Saskatchewan radio talent has had to migrate elsewhere. This has resulted in a serious loss of talent and dramatic talent to the Saskatchewan community.

The CBC is to be commended for giving Jean Bradley and her Ensemble a chance to be heard. It is to be hoped that persons enjoying the broadcasts will write to the CBC, Jean Bradley or to the Regina Gyro Club and tell them so. More important, that they will raise their voices in a demand that Saskatchewan talent in general be given an opportunity to perform over the CBC.

Meat-Eaters Are Blamed For Wars

TORONTO — The basic cause of war is meat-eating, A. B. Davies of Hamilton said here recently.

Mr. Davies, who describes himself as a naturopath, told the Toronto unit of the Canadian Vegetarian Union that meat-eating and fighting will always be inseparable. The meat-eater is a "born fighter," he said.

The title of his address was "Why no peace without vegetarianism."

AS TO CATS

How large was the biggest cat you ever saw? In McDonnre, Australia, a "biggest cat" contest was held. The winner was a feline named "Montgomery", who is forty-one and a half inches long. Second was a cat named "Tiger", who weighs thirty-five pounds and has a girth of thirty-two inches.

PROLIFIC PAPA

Jimmy Faulkner, the world's oldest living ex-jockey, is ninety-six years old. He was one of thirty-two children. His father died in 1902 at the age of one hundred and four. As to offspring Jimmy has gone his father one better. He is the father of thirty-three children. He has eighty-three grandchildren.

HOME TROUBLE

Was your wife a good cook right from the beginning of your married life or did she develop herself as time went by? How about the first time in your married life you had dinner guests? Everything went smoothly, I hope. This comment inspired by a communication from a "just married" young woman of California, which read in part: she was preparing a dinner for some "important guests". She described the dinner as follows: "Barbecued spareribs, baked potatoes with chopped green onion, green sweet peas, a green salad with sour cream and garlic dressing, and cream cheese pie". Sounds all right except for that garlic dressing. Oh well, people don't play post office after dinner parties. As for cream cheese pie, that's a new one on me.

OSTRICHES

That an ostrich sticks its head in the sand when frightened is a fallacy. Ostriches are not that stupid. That's what I note a quiz expert here informs a questioner. He's only fifty per cent. right. Male ostriches do not stick their heads in the sand when frightened. But female ostriches do.

HERES

What is the official decision of experts on the much and constantly discussed question: "Do women dress to impress other women or do they dress to appeal to men?" After considerable research and checking on this question, experts have definitely decided women dress to appeal to men and that it follows if a female is attired in a manner having a strong male appeal she will also impress women.

Believes Sun Rays Cause Health Cycles

EDMONTON, Alta.—A university of Alberta professor believed the disease and health cycles among wildlife and humans was caused by the sun's rays.

Professor William Rowan said population cycles were linked with the ultra violet vitamin D rays from the sun. He believed his theory would help solve the mysterious food and disease cycle which has puzzled naturalists for years.

The Edmonton Bulletin, commenting on the professor's theory, said it also appeared to cast light on why certain human diseases such as mumps, measles and whooping cough occur in regular cycles.

The theory also dovetailed with facts describing Canada's cycling wildlife populations. "After analyzing the problem, Professor Rowan developed some mysterious asterisked force was the cause. Covering as it did the whole of Canada, Scandinavia and probably northern Russia. It was too wide-spread to be caused by mere over-population or disease," the paper added.

Mother Told Operation On Siamese Twins Will Be Successful

TOPFIELD, Ala.—Mrs. E. A. Townsend, mother of Canada's only Siamese twins, said she had been informed by doctors that they are confident an operation to separate the children will be "completely successful."

The babies, who were two months old recently, came home from the hospital on the mother's 26th birthday a she said the doctors' news was the grandest birthday present a mother could get."

"The doctors told me they plan a separation operation when the twins are six months of age and strongest," she said. "They say the operation has every chance of success as examination has revealed no vital organs are joined." The children are joined at a small section of the abdomen

R.C.M.P. For Alberta

Alberta has just agreed a contract with the Federal Government for the policing of this province by the R.C.M.P. for another six years.

It is for six years, whereas the preceding one was for five years and prior to that the agreement was only made on a year-to-year basis.

The contract requires Alberta to pay $357,000 per year—or $365,000 more per year than during the previous five years—yet provincial officials are revealing no dispositions to subside over the price

Similar agreements have been entered into with the R.C.M.P. by a number of Alberta towns, especially during and since the war. They have been distinctly to the advantage of these communities.—Edmonton Journal.

DOLCIN LIMITED GRANTED PATENT

Acetylsalicylic acid has proven to be one of the most reliable and effective agents in the treatment of rheumatism and arthritis over the years.

A recent development for the treatment of rheumatism and arthritis is the combining of a buffering agent called compound calcium with acetylsalicylic acid. This compound, calcium succinate renders the acetylsalicylic acid non-irritating, allowing prolonged dosage to be taken with no harmful side effects.

The combination of acetylsalicylic acid and calcium succinate has been one of the most widely used methods of therapy in the world for the treatment of rheumatism and arthritis. Dolcin Limited of Toronto recently were granted a patent in Canada for the use of this combination in the treatment of arthritis and rheumatism.

Many among us are War Veterans—some with family responsabilities not always associated with the younger graduate.

We know that a university degree will not in itself guarantee success. It must be backed up with hard work. But, whether or not we have acquired a particular knowledge of direct interest to employers in any particular industry, we still suggest our degree is a good reference, for we have at least proven ourselves to the extent of obtaining it.

Graduates are available from all types of courses this year.

Oil makes a country strong

Try to imagine life without oil! Oil supplies one-quarter of all the heat and power we use . . . in home and factory, on farm and highway. It helps us live better.

For years Canadians have had to depend on foreign countries for almost all the oil they used. Now, after a long and costly search, big new fields have been found in Alberta.

The more oil we produce right here in Canada the stronger we will be. Already the new discoveries have made thousands of new jobs. Millions of U.S. dollars needed for imported oil are now being saved by the new oil fields, and the prairie consumers are saving money too.

In order that Canadians may reap further benefits, Alberta oil must reach new markets. It must be moved to eastern Canada—2,000 miles away—where it must compete with oil from other areas. That means holding transport costs down to a minimum.

To bring Alberta oil east a tube of steel will span one-third of the continent—from Edmonton to Lake Superior. It is taking shape now. To carry the oil on to Ontario refineries, the largest inland tankers ever built are being constructed in Canadian yards.

There's a big job still to be done before the full benefits of the new oil discoveries reach all Canadians. But the job is being carried on with increasing benefit to all of us. Oil is strengthening the nation.

This advertisement is appearing throughout Canada in daily and weekly newspapers

Congrats to Mr and Mrs Harold Cotton on the birth of a son.

Congrats are also in order to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Larson to whom a new daughter was born.

Mr Wm. Nichol and son Elton are home again after spending the winter in Edmonton.

Last week Mrs. Bert Cotton and Mrs John Forster attended the Presbytery of the United Church which was held at Camrose.

Two old landmarks have been removed from the district; the long red barn at the United Church purchased by F. Sherwood Jr.; also the old house just south of the church lawn; to bygone days as the Dr. Haynes house.

Miss Margaret Child is assisting at the Harold Cotton home.

Mumps are still raging throughout the community.

Walter Uhl accompanied Becker Drilling crew to Saskatchewan and intends to return this week to put in theerep on the D. Smith farm.

We are pleased to report that Mrs Earle McDonald who has been very seriously ill in the University hospital, has been discharged and spent a few days at the Richard Sorenson home enroute to Provost.

News is scarce, so will send a timely tip. When putting away a partly used tin of paint, gently pour a small amount of turpentine on top of the paint. This will prevent the scum from forming.

Thro' The Window At Lougheed

The Cliff Nees family has returned from a winter spent in the Leth bridge district. That's down in the irrigation belt and Cliff was indirectly connected with it, but couldn't withstand the call of the farm in the spring. Welcome back and we hope Mrs Nees has completely regained her health by now.

Congrats to Mr and Mrs Allan Fox (nee Jane Phyl Barthely) on the birth of a daughter on April 24th at Killam hospital. Allan is an experienced horse-hide jumper with the Pats but I'll bet he learns a lot about jumping when Beverly Ann crates attention to the wee small hours.

The Jack Grainger family motored to Edmonton last week and traded cars, bringing back Ken and leaving Lorrie here for a visit. I'm sure he'll make a bunch of the girls sore and interesting Whooping Cranes like it says there were 12 of them between Stirnne and Impland and describes them as very beautiful birds. I doubt if many of the natives have ever seen one even in early days.

Where it all goes nobody knows, one day you pass a lot and it is filled with new machinery, and the next day it's empty and both parties and farmers are crying for more. Saw Roland Van Impland of Hardisty pulling away from McCrackens with what looked like a new parker. Whatever it is you want Lougheed has it or will get it for you.

Mr and Mrs Tom Wormsen have returned to their farm here after seven years in Calgary where Tom was employed in the C P R shops. He has now retired and both he and wife look as though the change had agreed with them. Welcome back and may you both have years to enjoy the well earned retirement.

Had a surprise visit last week from my nephew Cliff Halloway and family returning from a visit at Lanvland Sask. to their home in Edmonton. Just stopped long enough to say hello and goodbye as they were all dead tired. Cliff says talk about the roads, we got pavements in Alberta. It took him 4 hours to go 7 miles in Saskatchewan.

Congrats to Mr and Mrs Melvin Larson. A new daughter arrived at Killam hospital on April 23rd.

Miss June Maclaw has returned from a week in Edmonton.

Mrs T Kemp left for Edmonton last week on receipt of word that her daughter Mrs Thornmyer was in the hospital. We hope better news was her greeting on arrival.

Mr Ashland Murray, who has spent winters on Lloydminster returned last week and will farm the Mrs B Wilkins farm.

Our sympathy to Lars Axelsen who is laid up with the Mumps. Just as his beard seemed

Mr Howard Morrison of Edmonton was in the district last week and on business in connection with the supply end of the pipe line.

The odds on betting on married life seems to be about 1 to 6. At least I noticed 6 of our mates headed for the hinterland at Camrose last week. Four of them were bachelors.

Varsity has closed for the term. I saw Art Pedlar and Uhas. Weir and wife paying a short visit to their respective parents, hanging for good news when the results are out. It is the last year for both boys and we wish them good luck.

The annual meeting of the curling club will be held May 21st in the local hall. Pictures will be shown and a social time is intended to all.

Orrie Reimche is sporting a new Mercury hail top trunk.

Ernie Pederson returned home his trip to Edmonton, days he met our old friend Wong Wee and wife, and Hem Pon and that all added to an enumerated to their many Lougheed friends. Mrs Wee says her husband has told her some very nice things about people here. Well, right here and now we extend them an invitation to visit Lougheed and she will find hubby is a very truthful man.

The Doukhobors may have the right idea of stopping the 3rd war. If they are allowed to continue there won't be enough left to be worth anyone's while taking the country. Y. P. U. GROUP VISITS HARDISTY

The Young People's Union of St. Paul's United Church were hosts at the lunch hour to a team of young people from the Christian Leadership Training Schools in B.C. The team consisted of Rev. R. A McLaren, Principal and the following graduate members: Miss Barbara Redwood, Miss Merle Kieth, Dave Gilchrist and Walter Ischelson. A warm welcome was extended to the visitors by the Minister Rev. J. P cuttil

Mr. McLaren spoke briefly, telling of the founding of the school less than 2 years ago, and of the journeys engaged it had received from friends all over the West.

Several students told convincingly of what the six months course has meant to them, in a personality and al spiritually. The musical part of the program, which was a rare treat included a duet, a vocal solo and three violin solos.

Faye Terry President of the Hardisty YPU fittingly thanked the visitors for their inspiring message in speech and song.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cox [illegible] Edmonton with son [illegible] and family, before two sons [illegible] business has taken all [illegible] for a position at Calgary and [illegible] him and family [illegible] to spend [illegible] settlement with relatives at the [illegible].

Lord by read the item in [illegible] Rimbey Weight has purchased [illegible] mechanical horse. As soon as we [illegible] Jack Weeks on the Bar-none [illegible] on a tractor, we can stop [illegible]. Lament as there are about the [illegible] two all horsebriers on the coast [illegible] district. Really this may [illegible] don't have to be so very old to [illegible] passed through the th ee stages, [illegible] to horses and then to cars. [illegible] next? And don't be puzzled, the [illegible] will be a next. The succeeding [illegible] aiden will laugh at our [illegible] N [illegible] laugh at the pioneers a [illegible].

Donald Camden is visiting with [illegible] sister Mrs. Gerhardt for [illegible].

Here is one for the book. [illegible] book. The Arnold Motley farm [illegible] boast of two sets of twin calves, [illegible] in one week. Talk about the goose [illegible] had the golden egg. At the price [illegible] of beef today, she was a piker. Calves [illegible] and mothers doing well says Mrs. A. [illegible] sold with a smile.

Rev. Dr. Elmer Johnson of Lloyd [illegible] spent the evening in the other night, [illegible] and from the smile he sported I know [illegible] I knew another who was with him. [illegible] Of course I had to investigate. Con- [illegible] gratulations to both on their good [illegible] judgement.

The Ivar Stubbes and Mrs Rogers [illegible] spent Wednesday of last week visiting in Camrose. Now that us fowls [illegible] was alright but when friend wife [illegible] keeps telling me what a lovely place [illegible] the Camrose Old Folks Home is, well [illegible] I know she is just looking for a new [illegible] location for herself, and wonder just [illegible] what she has on her mind.

Congratulations to Mr and Mrs Edwin Smith of Edmonton. A son Larry Wayne arrived April 25th.

Mr and Mrs Law Watts and baby of Killam and Mrs Dorothy Knutson and three children of Edmonton spent Sunday last with their parents the J. Jacks. Dr. Scottie says he knows now what they mean by a "full house on Jacks."

The H O Warrens spent a few days at Calgary and the Harold Nelsons visited at Bowden.

Mrs Ray Freeman has returned after spending the winter with the boys at Coleman, and intends to make her home on the farm.

Mrs Melvin Larson received word of the death of her sister at Edmonton on April 30th. We extend our sincere sympathy in relation.

The show last week was fairly well attended and was enjoyed by all. At times it was a bit difficult to follow but the acting, action and scenery were fine. Lougheed is to be congratulated on the type of shows put on.

Word was received of the death at Arthur J. Chilvers on April 12th at Columbia City, Oregon at the age of 81. Burial took place in Bethany Memorial Cemetery at Warren. The Details are lacking The Chilvers family were old timers here, having farmed for years what is now the Chilvers Lundi farm. The sympathy of the community is extended to bereaved.

The first patrol of the Lougheed Boy Scouts took place a week last Saturday and covered roughly 12 miles on foot and motor, with a welcome roast thrown in. The Scouts under Scoutmaster N. (Ike) Grainger conducted themselves like veterans and were raring to go at the finish line.

The elevator repair gangs seem to be having a field day with Elevator [illegible]. I dropped down by the Post [illegible] Bessie and most of its inmates seemed to be scattered around the yard. I asked the if he wasn't afraid the cows would fall in with all the particulars torn out. No says he. I be [illegible] gets the feed and pearly as supper [illegible] stepped over to the nearest house where a bulldozer was scooping out practically the whole adjoining lot. I asked Warren if he was going into a wood and panting in a burning place. He said he would like to but couldn't get water as Ukrem had the pond. Someone told me they were just then [illegible] a cement basement, and to show [illegible] wasn't completely unsafe I says [illegible] you will move the house over [illegible] it. He says no, we are just build [illegible] out here now there is more room and light and when we get it [illegible] level we will take the basement [illegible] above it under the house. It was [illegible] of him to explain things so very [illegible] to a stranger.

Jack Jr. has been taking a [illegible] correspondence course and [illegible] much benefitted by it.

Noticed a handy little gadget on [illegible] of those Inglish Fords. Attached [illegible] to steering post was a metal tab [illegible] you see my bend says. It said, [illegible] stamp in nearest mail box. I [illegible] it will pay postage.

Laughter and cries marked their last [illegible] night closing on May 6th.

The R.C.M.P. visited the town on the [illegible] week end again. We [illegible] they continued something, as none of our local genius has his name [illegible] the right hand door. This can be [illegible] Last [illegible] girls!

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mutchinson and Mrs. D. A. Fraser were Edmonton visitors one day last week.

Mrs. Syd Garlands of Tofield, an [illegible] of this district spent a [illegible] evening with the Tom Cookmans.

We are glad to see Norris has accepted other [illegible] him up with a [illegible] in there. Norris seems to have no [illegible] in tough task since returning [illegible], having previously operated [illegible]. He says he is O.K. again now [illegible] old smile was still in place. Any [illegible] only defect I could notice was that [illegible] wasn't always on his upper lip, but [illegible] with the warm weather it may pass through.

Angus Grieve is sporting a new [illegible] truck via McCracken agency. [illegible] our old friend Green the Mag- [illegible] is appearing again at Lougheed. [illegible] I've seen him a couple of times but [illegible] go again. Always was a sucker [illegible] for anything in the mysterious line [illegible] matrimony or haunting house [illegible]. May not be able to figure them [illegible] but always willing to chance it.

The grader made a good job of the [illegible] village streets, but oh the misery; and that including my own. However Wed- [illegible] is Village clean-up day.

Just looked up and saw a smiling face at my office window; in fact a [illegible] of them. One was Rosemary Cookman home from Edmonton for the week- [illegible] end and looking as if she was glad to [illegible] it. The other face looked as if it was [illegible] glad of it too.

The Howard Pope family made a 1 day trip to Edmonton Sunday of last week to visit brother Glen.

The Holmans, Don and Virginia Vagt took in the Gracie Field show at Edmonton and report a wonderful time. They were fortunate in securing good seats, and also good substitutes as Dad Vagt was in charge of the Mestery and N. Grainger of Tofield and White store.

Mrs Alex Barker who had the misfortune to break her arm some time ago, was forced to go back to Rimbey hospital lately as it was not progressing favorably. We are glad to hear she is now fine and appears [illegible] like a bad risk. He promises [illegible] be here for 24th and Farmer Day.

Saw a bunch of shirts giving the town's rush last Saturday on the subscription gag. Wonder if those who signed the dotted line noticed how quick their money headed for Toronto and points East. There [illegible] a couple of liars and they covered our town like a tent in one hour. Remember you can get the same papers at the same price from your Postmaster and part of the money is spent here.

May Day was clean-up day at the school and old and young and tourists combined to rake and burn and tidy up. The results were ample reward for the effort.

Congrats to Miss Linda Duncan on her 5th birthday. Had a piece of her birthday cake and it was so good I could hardly wait for her eighth.

Miss Louise Whitbeck was [illegible] and in Hartney hospital last [illegible] day. At time of writing her [illegible] had not been diagnosed We hope [illegible] is not serious and wish her a speedy and complete recovery.

The Anglican Church was [illegible] scene of a double Christening, [illegible] Sunday when the Rev. Bromley baptized the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. COME ON IN, SON, AND meet the manager!

When you take over the farm, one of these days, you'll want to talk to him. You can discuss things in a friendly way, as I have done. And you'll find he knows a lot.

He knows we farmers need bank credit — sometimes to put in a crop, sometimes to take off a harvest. If we need market information, he can get it for us.

Remember when we electrified the farm? Our bank manager made me the loan. He's backed us up that way for years, helping us to improve our stock, increase production.

And that's what our bank manager is there for—to help you and me to manage. He's a good man to know.

SEDGEWICK ALBERTA

How many people to the gallon?
Many thousands of Canadians have a part in making a gallon of Esso available for your car.

About 12,000 of them are employed by Imperial. Some search for new oil fields; some move oil from producing fields to refineries where others make it into Esso and hundreds of other useful products; still others see to it that these are on hand wherever you want them.

Then there are almost 10,000 independent business men who, as Imperial dealers, supply you with our products.

And there are the many thousands of people who derive part of their livelihood from making and transporting the things that Imperial uses in its operations. Last year we bought equipment and supplies from more than 3,000 Canadian firms.

But these are not all.

About 70,000 Canadian residents are shareholders in Imperial or owners of Imperial bonds.

And there are more thousands who have an investment in Imperial through their bank deposits or their insurance policies, because a number of Canada's banks and insurance companies have put some of their clients' money to work to help us do our job.

Finding oil and bringing it to you in the kind of products you need is a big job, a job that requires the skills and the savings of many thousands of Canadians.

Bringing you oil is a big job . . . and a costly one

WILD DUCK GOES DOMESTIC
While trucking grain for Bill Al brecht recently, Hunter White discovered a duck had made her nest on top of the wheat in the bin, and was busy incubating 10 eggs She quite evidently isn't taking any chances on a crop failure next fall. Better pit a screen on the window and a tank of water in the bin Bill! Might save a lot of wasted energy and ammunition next fall.

PERSONAL STUFF

The quiet calm of Friday evening was rudely shattered with the frightening news of a fatal car accident. Neighbors were calling in hushed tones over back-yard fences, agreeing that it was a shame young Johnny had to be taken so young and him only 18 — his whole life before him. Mr Brad until seven o'clock the next morning, with a fractured skull and a deep wound that bled interminably. And poor Francie Barnes. Laying in hospital with a shattered left leg and severe cuts and abrasions. The doctors are worried about his condition. He may never be able to drive a car again even if the authorities allow him too.

The above is really not true, at least not in so far as the locality is concerned. But such accidents do take place, and recently too. Four young people were killed in an accident which was wholly avoidable.

Thank heavens the above did not take place in any district served by this paper. The partial account of it is repeated simply to call to your attention to the potential possibilities of the car. Such an accident 'brushing' upon us at any time, if the present disregard for the rules of the road are kept up, especially by those young teen age drivers who become 'bored' with life and seek excitement behind the wheel of a car.

Kids nowadays have games they play with cars. One such game is called 'weave', in which you just reverse the car down the road, back and forth, back and forth just to give it a 'gentle' rock. Another is called 'rat racing' and the object here is for two cars to race at top speed trying to pass each other. Still another is named 'ditching', where one car tries to ditch the one pursuing. Perhaps the most dangerous of these games, is the one named after that overwork ed word 'chicken'. This is where two cars head toward each other at top speed and the driver who swerves first is 'chicken'. Those youngsters don't realize that it is better to be a live 'chicken' than a dead 'goose'.

Those young drivers have other assets as dangerous and just as obnoxious habits of cutting corners to see how close they can come to a light post, curb or other obstruction without actually hitting it; cutting in sharply between service stations and the gas pumps, or driving down sidewalks, all of which are needless and silly, besides being a menace to safe traffic and pedestrians alike. Let's put a stop in this stupid business NOW before death brings sadness and tragedy to some home.

Cancellation of driver's licenses could be the most logical answer.

To Check Accidents.....
Double Check Your Car

Improved Maintenance habits can reduce accidents and fatalities in Alberta. Driving a 'safe' car is as important to the life of a driver and his family as 'safe driving habits.'

Every car and truck owner is urged to recognize his obligation to drive a safe vehicle by having his garage 'DOUBLE CHECK' all safety features; Brakes, tires, lights, tubes, steering mechanism, windshield wipers and wheels.

Thro' The Window At Lougheed

Wes Pedlar and family of Hardisty were guests of the Br. Pedlars Sunday of last week.

Kay Jack of Camrose and Mrs. Lou Waite and baby of Killam spent the Mother Day holiday with their parents in Mr and Mrs Jos Jack.

Mr and Mrs Howard Pope and Jimmie and Martin Roggenkeck motored to Wilkie Sunday of last week. Lonnie and son were guests of the Br. Reeds while Irene Pope was guest of Linda Duncan at the Rogers home.

The first ball game of the season between Hardisty and Lougheed resulted in a win for Lougheed. Both teams displayed good form and we should see some snappy games this season, once the boys throw off their winter wraps and get down to real business. By the way don't forget to buy a couple of tickets when the boys call on you. They give them time, you give your support, both very bad and financial.

Ivan Smith and family of Edmonton paid a Sunday visit in his mother Mrs C P Rowland.

Mr and Mrs Bob Gibson of Alliance visited at T. Kenny's and some or their other friends last week, but I'll get even. Some day I'll go to Alliance and I won't even recognize them. Pass me up will you?

Archie Beaver was a business visitor to Edmonton last week.

Our belated congrats and apology to A.F. Pedlar, whose name should have appeared in last week's list of students of the U. of A. as passing his final in Pharmacy. Now I'll give you all a permission to forget, 'Yes tell me and I'll tell the world'. Otherwise do not blame me if you do not see it in your hometown paper.

David McGraken was confined to Killam hospital for a few days last week as a result of having the horse he was riding fall on him. He was badly bruised and shaken up, but is now home again. We are glad that it was no worse than it was.

John Birchill was on the sick list last week requiring medical attention. With this changeable weather and cold winds it is a wonder there is not a lot more sickness.

Watching the B of M car on it makes its weekly Thursday visit to Lougheed, I often wondered why it took two men to guard it for the few hours it was here in daylight. I have now as I passed close to it today and saw the treasure on the seat between them. That would make the Brinks boot look like chicken feed — face value that is.

Glen Smith and Mrs Joan Inks motored to Provost last Sunday week.

Henry Volkart Jr. of Innisfail is in Edmonton hospital. While hammering some machinery he was repairing, a piece of steel chipped off and entered his eye. We don't know just how bad the injury is but he has the best wishes of all his friends, many of whom turned out to express their in a practical way by assisting to all his crop and garden. Doods do speak louder than words.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nelson on their baby girl born in Camrose hospital.

The show of Green the Magician, was very poorly attended for the class of entertainment he puts on, owing to other social attractions. Lougheed will have to be careful that all the they give outside talent the green light to come on, that the track is clear of other local events, or we will get on the black list of all travelling talent.

Rosa Prunc of Wales, who has spent the last couple of years in this district and with his sister Mrs T A Jones, left last week to visit in Lavoyle from where he will proceed East to take the boat back to homeland. Good luck and safe voyage and my best to we will be see you back again soon

Last week we said welcome back to Mr and Mrs Tom Clark — the son ed from Alliance back to the district and before the paper was out sent me word they had moved to the farm back to Alliance. Sorry to me of a friend of mine who sees me often that when he was over to visit him, added they hoped we've moved from where we are for long now!

Essie Pedersen spent a few day in Edmonton last week getting his smile re-plated. You'd hardly know the old place now.

Congrats to Mr and Mrs. H M Thomas (nee Stella Bergseth) of Vancouver. A baby girl on May 15th

Mrs Chas Rongenkeck spent a few days in Edmonton last week getting a change of glasses These are the third that fit our nose in 15 years — days I made many trips to Edmonton to change glasses, but mostly the kind that fit under your nose.

Backward turn backward oh time in your flight, I'd like to make a brief pee annin just for one night

Lougheed and Killam Jr. ball teams met for the season's opener on the ground last Friday, resulting in a win for Lougheed Not a bad start for Lougheed's season as both Killam Jr. rate 100 percent so far

Gee, is busy installing the pipe line crew near Hardisty.

Mr and Mrs DeMan and two child ren of Grassmere spent a few days with her sister Mrs Jack Bircher.

For a picture of utter desolation I'll nominate Ken He and his life's business and is living in a trailer The wife and son left for Ontario to visit her father who is seriously ill in Kirkland Lake. She will be gone some time and expects to visit her mother, brother and sister at Bellingham, Ohio.

We are welcome to our newcomers the Hansens, who have taken over Ken's Cafe. Miss Ann Dol, who has accepted a position at the Hansen Island and Miss Joy Hendricks who is engaged in the Hansen Cafe

Mr and Mrs Lee Smith and family of Edmonton motored down to spend the week end with the Alvin Olsen and friends in the district

Clifford, young son of Mr and Mrs Henry Potter, met with a painful accident last week. A skunk had been caught in a trap which was fastened by a wire to a large rock, and it left with the human idea of putting it out of misery, had taken the trap chain in. The bullet hit the rock rebounded and entered his shoulder muscles, causing a nasty wound. Fortunately, who was alone with the chat ron at the time, rushed him to Hardisty hospital where an examination proved it would be too dangerous to try to remove the bullet and risk injury to the muscles. The wound was dressed, and at last reports Clifford was up and around though in hospital. We wish him the best of luck and hope he will soon be home again. While this is the type of accident that could happen to old or young, we doubt the wisdom of treating youngsters with any kind of fire arms, except under supervision.

Saw Harry Vanderwalk of Bethel district talking over old times with some of the local oldsters.

When it was all but rough I ordered the boys out, the jail but they only got as far as the fence and continue to tease the child, and being out of my jurisdiction I had to remain quiet. Irene has just recovered from the Ch ken Pox and is now able to be out. I will with deliberate stride she locked on the boys saying "I'll give you kid on the victims. When I got there

SEDGEWICK TO PLANT DONATED ELM TREES

Mr. A. H. Bowler is receiving the thanks of Sedgewick citizens for his donations of Elm seedlings which will be used to replace some non-our trees of last year and to make some new plantings.

Messrs Frank King and Joe Heartberg have offered to look after all town trees for the summer months, while the younger ones help build the new Memorial hall. These are two fine examples of civic pride and interest which might well be exemplified by more of us.

Thro' The Window At Lougheed

Rudy Johnson spent the week end with his family. Rudy is with the elevator construction company which has been working at Champion and has now moved to Bayhe.

Mrs R K McCracken was Lougheed delegate to the Alberta Cancer Society conference at the University on May 31 to 2nd and will give a report of same at the next W I meeting in Lougheed Legion Hall. Refreshments served. Everyone welcome. All new members as well as members

Congratulations and best wishes to both Mr. A. Hendsley and Mrs. Seb Hertel who last week joined together in holy matrimony. Mrs. Hertel is the former Miss Hertel. We wish them both many more good years ahead.

Smith Bros. (Lougheed) are making an addition to their Garage that will almost double the space. Tom Hoots in charge of cement work. Rather unfortunately, one day he is managing a winning ball club and the next day supervising small boy young fry. He's Hoots Stuff.

Ladies first is the mark of the perfect gentleman especially if he is sitting in a car and letting them pump the water.

Mr and Mrs. Perkins and Mrs W. Fodor of Hartley were Sun. guests of Mr and Mrs Harry Hopkins.

Saw Hertel Pope pro duly displaying what looked was a new stitch job but on closer scrutiny discovered was the local result of an afternoon he was holding in front of him.

Mrs. J. L. Mackenzie of Ituna and Edwin Smith of Edmonton spent Sunday of last week with the C P Rowlands and Howard Morrison and family of Edmonton spent the 24th with the Rowlands.

Mrs A Fisher and new babe left Tuesday to join her husband in Calgary. Alec has been in Winnipeg the past few weeks taking the flood and she will be his first introduction to Miss Fisher.

T A Jones was a business visitor to Edmonton last week as was Dr. Zipperer, who returned with a brand new snappy Pontiac.

Lougheed district had about three days showery weather, and while it could hardly be called a rain, it did help and freshened things up a bit. But from the way the dust was flying last Saturday, we sure could do with a soaker.

Mrs J E Wade left last Monday for a 3 month visit with friends and relatives in England. Bon Voyage and a safe return to you.

Mrs Norm Wyer (Joyce Rogers) returns home for a few weeks while her husband was transferred to Regina to complete his course, stopped off to visit her sisters in Edmonton, took the months that has been on the short-list since. We hope to see her soon though before her husband gets his permanent posting.

All sport fans members will be out at the next meeting to make final arrangements for Field Day. Let's not only be a success if you all help to make it so. Be there

David Harding spent a few days at home. The rain in the north country is still holding up his work.

Keith Pointer awoke the other night to hear a lock howling. Thinking it was Gabriel he dressed, but robe and scattered forth only to find it was his little that had got a short circuit, and was creating havoc with the plumbers of the neighborhood.

Rev. Wm Collier of Missoula, Mon. and Cecil Collier, Lawyer of Calgary visited their parents Mr and Mrs F D Collier last week

A friend of mine from the country was in at a very early hour the other morning. Said he was looking to chickens. I thought this funny as I thought the best time to look for chickens was late in the evening (of course I suppose it depends whether you want the kind that lay for you or the kind you lay for

Mr and Mrs J. Scott (nee Lorraine Wright) were guests for a few days of her parents the Reuben Wrights, prior to leaving Edmonton for their new home at Calgary

See the George Marlows sporting one of those new baby cars. They claim by now so fast I couldn't get in front of it.

Mr and Mrs Frank Macgillycuddy and three daughters spent the 24th with her sister Mrs Fred Rogers. I say Mrs. Rogers, as the husband who was to share in entertaining them and pass them for supper at a friend's dinner turned up missing. They even had to look him up at the bell grounds to get their orders. While admitting I was a first-class host, I plead as in the circumstances,— the homecoming was winning — I apologize and trust it will never occur again, as then the home team is winning.

Talk about new timing, last week Mrs T Weyman was the winner of the most unsatisfying once at the ball club draw, and sent morning she had a call to go to Edmonton. Did it look like a tourist as she slipped out with those new cares to greet a new grandson. Terrance William, born to Mr and Mrs Reuben Bartley at Edmonton on May 24th. Congrats all.

Miss McPherson of Calgary spent a few days with her friend Miss Jen McIntosh here. They are friends of long standing, having both been boys at their respective depots.

The Royal Hotel at Calgary To pours.

sports night someone drove a car through the fence of R. Wright's farm, making an opening through which his horses escaped. This caused Reuben to travel 11 miles next day to round them up. Common courtesy would have called for replacing the fence as it was found.

I had been reading and hearing of Johnson the Alberta Jewel thief who headed for Saskatchewan only to be captured later in Saskatoon, so what was my dismay as I looked out of my window to see a car and another Johnson with a jewel he had purloined in Alberta and headed for Saskatchewan. My first thought was to tell the police, but seeing he was already in good custody I merely wished him the best of everything in his line of cogitcy and waved him on his way.

All rumors led to Killam last week as students from various districts converged on that town for the annual Field Day. The buses from here were all packed. We will leave the detailed report to the correspondent on the spot, but from reports Lougheed made a good showing.

Ever hear of a shipwreck on dry land? That came near being the fate of Dave's 'Melody'. After a perfect launching and trial spin, the party headed home with the Melody on the trailer, only to find after going some distance that they had no trailer or boat. Search parties were sent out in various directions and when last seen Melody was being led along the highway by one of the fair sex. The only damage was one busted rib. Whose the report didn't say.

BYELSHILL NEWS

To attempt to tell all the comings and goers over the holiday is almost impossible. Most of the old regulars were here. I had a talk best with all of them, which is half the fun of the holiday. The Sr. Wainwrights, Arnold and Christensens, Chet Archbolds, the entire McDonald clan, you couldn't begin to mention them. We talked of present and way back when. Around ing to the audience I felt 79 years younger that day and 40 years older the next morning.

The response to the Manitoba Relief Fund is rather disappointing Possibly it is too close to home Foreign country would have more appeal. We have rolled on only 2 cars vances, your heart and conscience Remember they're the ones gun down the need goes up. If everyone does a little, the whole will amount to a lot. So far in two weeks seven people have donated only a total of one hundred dollars.

PROVINCIAL PLAYERS TOUR INCLUDES KILLAM, JUNE 8TH

Looking for a laugh? The Provincial Players will deliver a carload of laughs when they play in Killam on Thursday, June 8th.

The three plays to be performed are 'Eros at Breakfast' — 'Overlaid' and 'The Voice of the People', by Canada's distinguished author and playwright, Robertson Davies. 'Eros at Breakfast' is a psychiatric fantasy dealing with the trials and tribulations of the various organs of a young man in love. 'Overlaid' is a more serious comedy centering around a paid-up insurance policy, while 'Voice of the People' is a humorous account of everyday people which will appeal to the whole family.

The team of six young actors under the direction of Gordon W Addison, recent graduate of California's Pasadena Playhouse, will play thirty three performances in Alberta this summer. At Killam on June 8th.

Tickets are on sale from members of the Board of Trade, and the show begins at 8:15 p.m. in the Empire Theatre. Don't miss it.

Wildcats are risky

To an oil man a "wildcat" is a well drilled in an area where oil has never been found. Drilling a wildcat is a risky undertaking and a costly one. Some wells have cost more than a million dollars—and have not been successful.

For that reason oil men make as serious as they can, before drilling, that there is a good chance of finding oil. They use the most modern instruments and skills to locate each drilling site; but still the odds are 20 to one against them. Only about one wildcat in 20 becomes a producer.

Over the past 30 years oil men have worked continuously against these odds. In western Canada imperial alone drilled 134 wells—all dry—before the Leduc field was discovered in 1947.

But the end result has been new oil for Canada and benefits for Canadians. There are thousands of new jobs. Millions of U.S. dollars are being saved on the need for imported oil lessens. And, an another natural resource moves towards full development, the Canadian standard of living climbs higher.

These are real benefits to Canadians and they will increase as more oil is found. But to find more oil and to expand the advantages it brings, oil men must continue to work against long odds.

Sometimes a job that must be done can't be done without great risks.

Bringing you oil is a big job
...and a costly one

Hardisty

A special meeting of the Hardisty Town Council was held last week, at which time the Sewer and Water By Laws were given first reading and provisionally passed. These are now being referred to the Board of Public Utilities Commissioners for approval.

The Hardisty Legion branch held a regular meeting on May 15th.

Mr. M. Denny of the Canadian Corps of Commissionaires, has been duly appointed and sworn in as constable for the Town of Hardisty. Mr. Denny was per sonally a member of the Provost Corps, and his address up to now has been Edmonton.

Mr. Fred Olson underwent an operation in Edmonton on Friday of last week. His condition is reported a fairly good at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs Jim Smith and Phyllis Hall of Wainwright were visitors at the Keegan Inn Monday.

Mrs H Doug spent last Wednesday in Camrose with her daughter.

Misses Inez Terry, Eleanor Sumner and Jacqueline Hendricks of Edmonton spent May 24th at home here.

An May 23rd the pupils of Hardisty Schools exercised a very interesting display in Kiefer's hall, beginning with a ring parade from the school to the hall where parents and friends were gathered. Patriotic songs and recitations by all classes from one to eight were enjoyed and the program ended with the pupils of grade nine displaying all flags of the United Nations, after which the pupils marched back to school for dismissal.

Mrs. Marie Anderson spent Saturday and Sunday at her home at Amisk.

Mr and Mrs Claude May were dinner guests at the Perry Powell home last Sunday.

The Senior and Peewee baseball teams took in the sports in Lougheed on May 24th taking second and first money respectively.

Margaret McKinnel of Calgary is home with her parents for awhile.

Mrs. Neil Edwards and kiddies are visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Dennifield.

Parents of the pupils of grades 3 and 12 were entertained at a grade 12 graduation banquet held in the Oddfellow's hall last Tuesday, May 23rd, after which they proceeded to Kiefer's hall where a dance was held attended by the district orchestra. The banquet was very good and the graduating girls looked very lovely in white formals, as did other high school students who were also in formals.

The raised ballot set raffled by the Rebekah Lodge at the graduation dance last Tuesday night was won by Bert Terry. Congrats Mrs. Terry.

About 35 Hardistyites entertained our American guests at a weiner roast at the Saville ranch Sunday night. Some fishing was done and a large part of the evening spent in singsong. A pleasant time was had.

CADETS 'ROUGH IT' AT BUFFALO LAKE

Sunday morning at five. What a grand morning for schemes, and for roughing it. First, our greatest surprise was the arrival of our Chief instructor Capt. McGee. He was so time and we were all set for the day. We arrived at Oakbed, stopping to allow Alliance Cadets to get ahead of us, then Halkirk where Coronation cadets. We reached Bindloe at 1:30. After a lunch we proceeded to camp a Buffalo Lake. There was a Sherman Tank and the boys were allowed to drive it and ride in it. The boys also used the ranges with .303 and .22's.

After lunch the boys drove a decent, truck as well as smaller ones. Supper time soon rolled around, and then camp was pitched. Everyone sang on the way home, with pop and chocolate bars to add flavor. Arrived home at 10:00 hours.

Thro' The Window At Lougheed

Lougheed Village Council has decided Wed. June 21st a civic holiday. Dr. E. K. Martin, president of the school, Nazarene College at Red Deer, will be guest speaker at the 11 o'clock service in Lougheed on Sunday, June 25th at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Mrs. Frank Andrew and children of Edmonton spent a week-end with her mother Mrs. Lew Waite at Bellshill and as now visiting here with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jack.

Eddie Parker from Beiseker at Twiseld spent a week-end with his parents the Hans Pedersens.

Virgil White and wife spent a few days in Calgary last week. He and Mrs. L. Ingalls were doing carpenter work on the addition to the school here (Lougheed) teacher. While in Sedgewick a wonderful improvement to that part of town. We trust that if they keep on building they are going to run out of ground space.

Congratulations to Mr and Mrs Wm Paterson — a new baby boy born June 6th at Killam hospital.

Mr and Mrs John Lamp of Killam and Mr and Mrs Wm Corbett from Lougheed were Sunday guests at the home of Mr and Mrs. Dave Walmsley.

R. H. Rickman and family of Innisfail motored with their parents Tom and Virginia Vagt and party attended a meeting of the Eastern Star lodge at Lethbridge last week. Dad Vagt was master of the lodge during their absence.

Tom Clarkson, Fabrie Johnson and Jas Black attended the Lacombe Bull sale. The two former purchased new sires for their herds. Jim Black stopped at Tees to visit the Herb Cookman family who were just leaving for a month at the Coast.

Mrs. Sam Ketchen and Mary Lougheed did timers until retiring time on the farm a few years and haskins their home in Hardisty. Reported ok for a that the other day. We always enjoy their little visits of the old days of the horse and buggy and the prairie trail days. Sam, a patriot of all he stands for apparently had nothing in common with we of the younger set, as he did not come to school to report both Sam and wife are well.

Arrangements have been made to have the T.B. travelling clinic visit Lougheed at a future date, possibly in July. See posters and be sure to get a card at Sec-Treas. office and fill it in for an appointment. All ages examined. You may need this. Say Bob your game may be the means of some one else going who does realize it but otherwise would not go. Let's make it a 100 percent affair.

Well, as the old song goes, "The Cats Come Back" and all report a wonderful time at Lloydminster. While not any richer financially they say money rather in experience. As the coach says, the boys played good but other teams were better. That's what I like about the Cats, no excuses or alibis. Well they lost 9 to nine. Many of these boys jumped off their farm machinery to go on the diamond amongst very fast company. Locals seed has no paid ball players so who they can offer as an inducement for ball players to come here. We have to use our home stuff and when we see the Edmonton Oilers (a junior team) go down 11 0 we just say 'keep on paying' Edson we are still proud of you'. I asked the coach if he had seen any of the old Barr Colony. He gave me a reproachful look and says, 'we were all strictly in training and never entered in a bar'.

Congratulations to Mr and Mrs W. W. (Pat) Frost on a son born the 9th at Hardisty hospital.

Leslie and Stanley Rigby of Millet spent last Friday or more and report all the Rigby clan complete and [illegible] the hockey and [illegible] on the ice nearly made [illegible] The lads are pretty busy [illegible] on the [illegible] so [illegible] Leslie [illegible] a week-end [illegible] Stanley [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Thro' The Window At Lougheed

As I stepped out of my office the other evening it, what the writer chaps would call the gloaming, I noticed a car parked with a coupon of young folks in it. The radio was softly playing. "Speak To Me Of Love". Just wishing to break the spell I politely by coughing a sly cough. Oh horrors! There she sat blowing her bubble gum out; one wonder where he blew his smoke out the other. As I left the scene I thought — Ah yeah Ah romance!! Ah phooey!!! What is the matter with the youth of today? Things were different when father was a boy. Maybe it's the cars or the bubble gum or the combination of both But what I wouldn't have given for my youth and his opportunity.

Mr and Mrs H Kerfoot have returned from a two week visit at Huxley and report crop and moisture conditions very much worse there than here. There is always some one that is worse off.

Many of the local sports attended the big Cameron ball tournament and all report a wonderful time and a wonderful display of ball playing that local team the Wildcats while not winning put up a good game, the team losing 3 to 5 against them which compared with the other scores in a field of all pitched teams.

How can you write local news when the guys who make news won't stay home or won't tell you when they get home? You look out one day and they are heading for Lloydminster, next Camrose, then Hardisty calf club, then the big Hardisty Stampede. Of course there was the twilight game between the Lougheed Sodbusters and the Indian Head Shadows, but that was a total eclipse and as the song goes "We don't talk about that. We have always contended it is a mistake to bring in a professional team against the local amateurs. It is neither fair to the visiting team, the locals or the public. It does not show the visitors up in their best form and shows the locals in their worst; and the public is dissatisfied and forms a wrong opinion of the locals. The Indian Head boys were a smooth working machine and in their own class would take some beating. They were gentlemen on the field and off. Lougheed has a nice team and can hold their own with any in their own class. For the sake of their moral, they should not get too far out of it. As for myself (and I think most spectators) I would much rather watch a game between two local teams where you can call all the players by name and when a little excited call them things that are not their names. You may get the general idea. I was disappointed, I was.

Mr and Mrs Jim Richett and family of Ardrossan dropped in on a surprise week end visit to her sister Mrs Norman Denham.

It's the height of optimism or perhaps sarcasm when they send a fisherman's day card to a confirmed bachelor, or maybe they knew him better than I do.

The Rev. Grainger and family have returned from a short visit to relatives at Hawley. We are sorry to hear his Rev. is alone laid up with severe case of mumps. Our sympathy also to Louis Swanson and Wm. Theron Jr who are in a similar plight.

The CPR station has changed occupants. Pat Shanahan have been transferred to Penhold and Mr Richmond is in charge here pending the arrival of the permanent agent Mr. O'Morrow who is no stranger here having occupied similar position years ago. We will miss the Shanahans and their cheery daily greeting just beginning to find out the extent of damage and having to blow up some houses that had apparently escaped the flood but which examination shows are beyond repair.

Miss Lorraine Mathieson of Camrose P. M. Asst at the Lougheed office, has been engaged during duties at the Jasper Park Information Centre for people just going there, you go for pay has the best of hand will have first attention at the desks at Jasper Lodge.

Frank Routledge has been in hospital at the old homestead.

Last week's pleasant visitor was daughter Joyce (Mrs Norm Long) arriving home. This week her husband arrived from Camp Ipsaloo. This being his first visit to Lougheed wanted to make it's feel like home to the family, so I showed him around the point, pointed out his former haunts, lawn mower, hedge clippers, cedged his etc. and told him just to feel free to use anything as though it was his own. I am a friendly guy that way.

The Villagers got a shock last week when reading the local press, they discovered the Village and surrounding district was being sold from underneath their feet by those local boosters Flinn and Cookson At least the information circulated comprised the Chris Flinn farm and Lougheed village Someone had better check up their C P R West of the 4th or if have Habeas make a Corpus out of them.

Black Edmonton reigns a quiet city and No policemen arrested.

Mr and Mrs Carl Wingar are leaving for Edmonton to visit with their children Conrad and Beatrice Hall and daughter for the week. Then on to Red Deer to bring back Grandson Charles Winger for a stay here.

W. T. Archbald and wife and a friend dropped in last Saturday for a chit-chat enroute to Hardisty Stampede. They both took us through they had found the fountain of youth, or could it be the pleasure of visiting the old town again, especially that new nephew at the W. Paterson that gave them that satisfied look?

See R. W. (Bob) Robertson and friends of Edmonton giving the old town the once over on their way to the Hardisty Stampede. Seems a hard town for Bob to stay away from, or could there be other reasons.

See by the bill board that Eddie Pryor is bringing his Stroms team to Lougheed the 18th. Well this being only the 17th I'll go out on limbs and say that in this case Lougheed will take Pryorty.

Mrs Tom Tweedy and children returned from an extended visit to Kirkland Lake, Ont. where she was in attendance on her father who is seriously ill. She says Marion is able to be up but still far from well. Mrs Tweedy has moved her trailer home from Lougheed and will reside for the present in Penhold. Mrs has no one whom old pioneer families completely uprooted from our district. We remember the grandad Congdon the boys Wilbur; Walter and Mayton and then the youngest generation. With the exception of Mrs. Ernie Cookson they have all answered the call of other districts. I guess we are sorry to say have since answered the final call. While we refuse to say good bye — we even hate to say Au Revoir to the old pioneers of 2 or 4 generations. As I write this the Lougheed Sisters. I did the same myself and now my children have all done likewise. I guess it always was and always will be this way. Maybe as we get older we notice it more.

Mr and Mrs Durrant of Mirror are visiting their daughter Mrs. Dave Thomas Junior.

Mrs Leslie Rigby and daughter of Millet were Lougheed visitors.

At the Junior Calf Show at Hardisty last week comprising the districts of Hardisty, Killam and Sedgewick — Elbow Watts of Lougheed took Championship of the Sedgewick Club; Miss Shireen Watts took the Reserve Champion and Elbow took 3rd prize in the combined clubs. Congratulations. That's what I call throwing your weight around.

In the golf tournament at Hughendon Art (hole in one) Lawley from Lougheed took first in the flight event, and just to show like father like son, he and his dad teamed up to take first in another event. This report is about as brief as my knowledge of golf. My one and only experience in golf was with Tommy Cunningham many many years ago. It was either very late at night or very early in the morning (I don't remember) and neither of us being good walkers we put the 18 holes on the one green We both got very dizzy going round and I gave up golf right then.

Proved way to "FEED SECURITY"

A year's supply of high-quality feed in reserve is good management.

You might feed out some of the reserve each year . . . use it to carry you over a period of poor range condition . . . use it to replenish your herd after a specially opportune time. Whatever the outlook, you could plan your entire livestock operation with greater confidence.

A dream like that can come true with a home-owned

ROTO-BALER

Turns range hay or grasses into rolled bales that seal IN the leaves . . . seal OUT rain or snow. Rolled bales are securely twine-wrapped . . . will not buckle or come apart. They stack compactly, can be fed whole on the range with almost no waste.

There is No Substitute for GOOD EQUIPMENT

Nothing takes the place of up-to-date equipment for getting work done when it should be done . . . for catching-up with the job in late seasons . . . for removing the worry of the help problem . . . for increasing production . . . for keeping costs down and leaving more margin for profit.

Good equipment pays in many ways. And through a wide range of sizes and styles of tractors and power machines the advantages of modern equipment are available for all sizes of farms and types of farming.

Designed and built to embody the latest in engineering developments and manufacturing skills Massey-Harris power farming machines bring to users features that help them do their work easily, quickly, and at less cost.

MEETING APPROVED BOUNDARIES FOR SCHOOLS

The meeting called by the Trustees of School District at Killam on June 7th, to discuss the wishes of the Board in seeking to lay the pasture of furnishing opinion based on the before the ratepayers. There was still a great deal of confusion as to policy of closing the new school, however as the policy was at present handled by the Board there is not what they can do about it. However, it was stated by Mr. Gair in order to clear the air, that the Board had not definitely decided on any scheme and now unless the majority of the people in the district wishes it otherwise also said that some consideration had been given to re-opening the one-room schools. The meeting was largely did not want it done so also stated that the Board had not found that to be true.

There was very pointed criticism for most of the Trustees in the district in not paying their requisitions promptly and during the month of May the M.D. of Flagstaff time Town was reported as the only one to have paid year's requisitions at all, and in stress on the books of Division as unpaid time Town is standing up payments on the ground that the basis on which it joined is not equitable. A quite a report of this was presented, one involved for the meeting to grant no impost. A resolution to have the entire new basis set up received no support at all from the meeting.

There was a plainly indicated feeling that the West part of the Division was favored with the location of the Central High School, and a suggestion that high schools be set up in other centres. The Board pointed out that this would be unrealistic, as all towns would want high schools, thereby destroying the thing they were trying to do to have a high school with an adequate staff and the facilities to give the pupils in the division a high grade instruction.

The matter of selling coke/wood to construct needed rooms at Strome was presented. There did not seem to be much opposition to doing this. But some wished to get a vote in the resolution a committee was set when the facilities would be available. The resolution passed however did not include this. A resolution from the floor requested the Board to look into such as to give the pupils a chance to call for a referendum if they desired. This was passed by a good majority. A resolution was also passed asking for the Provincial Government to increase the grant to the Division.

Mr. Bewley of Daysland acted as chairman of the meeting.

Time to Treat Crops With 2,4-D

The successful success in the control of weeds in growing crops by 2,4-D rests not only in employing the right chemicals at the right concentrations but also in spraying or dusting at the right stage of both weed and crop growth.

Treat Early. It cannot be stressed too strongly that the best results with 2,4-D are obtained when annual weeds such as Wild Mustard and Stinkweed are treated in the seedling stage. Once annual weeds have grown large their resistance to 2,4-D increases rapidly. In consequence, the later the spraying or dusting is left the greater will be the amount of 2,4-D required to obtain a first-class kill; and the longer will the weeds be given a chance to compete with the crop. Treat early.

Stage of Crops Although it is important to treat the weeds as soon as the seedling stage is reached it is equally important to bear in mind the stage of crop growth. Too early or too late treatment with 2,4-D is likely to lead to crop injury. In the case of cereal crops (wheat, oats, and barley) it is essential to wait until the grain plants are in the 3-leaf stage, or about 6 inches high, before they are treated 2,4-D should be applied to cereal crops after the plants have reached the early shot-blade stage. In no instance should cereal crops be treated when the plants are in the flowering or early-heading stages of growth. With flax, treatment with 2,4-D should be made at the earliest opportunity after the flax plants have formed 1 or 2 leaves, since the weeds then will be more readily killed. Flax crops should not be sprayed or dusted with 2,4-D once the plants have started to bud. Late treatment of flax is likely to cause serious crop injury.

Seek Advice. More detailed information on the proper time to apply 2,4-D can be obtained from our local Line Elevator Agent who has for a copy of our "2,4-D Crop Treatment Chart." Remember early treatment with 2,4-D is essential for effective, economical weed control.

The Hardisty district has sustained to bear of the passing of Mrs Annie Nelson on Sunday June 18th at the home of her daughter Mrs Archie Moulder. She was 76 years of age.

Annie Karin (Christensen) Nelson was born at Nannested Norway on Nov. 26th 1873 the eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs C. Christenson, at the age of two years she came with her parents to South Dakota in 1902 she was married to Mr Andrew Nelson and they made their home at Brandt, S. Dak. until 1929 when they moved with their family to the Hardisty district where they since resided. Anna Nelson was predeceased in 1942 by her husband John and by a son Arthur in 1931. She leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother four sons: Oscar of Hardisty; Melvin of Irma, Irvin of North Battleford, Chester of Calgary, two daughters: Mrs Ida Wendle of Jasper and Mrs Alvina Moulder of Hardisty; also five brothers: John of Kinsella; Hans of Irma; Ole of Sedgewick; Arnold of Fabyan, Carl of Edmonton; two sisters Mrs Mary Finder of Boutwright and Hilma Jarre of Irma, besides 14 grandchildren and 2 great grand children. Pall and flower bearers in charge and services were held in the Sharon Lutheran Church at 2 pm. on Tuesday June 20th with Pastor Sterling Johnson of Spirit Lake officiating. He based his message on second Corinthians chapter 5. Pall bearers were Oscar, Melvin, Irvin and Arnold and two sons in law Martin Sorley and Archie Moulder acted as honorary pall bearers. She was laid to rest beside her husband in the Sharon cemetery. Blessed be her memory.

The many beautiful floral tributes were given by the following: The family; Uncle and Mrs Christenson, Claire family; Hans Christensen; the John Christensons; Arnold Christensons; Ole Christensons; M. Ideal weather prevailed for one of the best sports days staged in Sedgewick in recent years. The crowd was large, the entertainment was good. At this writing we do not know what the net profits for the ball fund will be but current reports are fine.

In the baseball tourney the home team was treated to some really good ball game games. Three of the teams went to six innings without scoring on either side in the opener. Sedgewick beat Longheed, then Sedgewick defeated Amisfree and Stroome took the measure of Hardisty.

Trade here Killam put the boys on a work bent to stroome and in the finals Killam defeated Stroome.

Pony Show 1st John McBride; 2 Gl. Maxwell and 3rd E. Hodgson.

Horse Show 1st Mrs. F. Lee, 2nd Clyde McBride, 3rd C. McBride.

Nine-day Horse Race 1st Clyde McBride, 2nd C. Maxwell.

Pony Race 1st and 2nd H. Hodgson, 3rd Skeet.

Derby Race 1st Maxwell 2nd Skeet, 3rd H. Henderson.

Sheetland Pony Race 1st Hodgson 2nd J McBride, 3rd L. McBride.

A new feature of this year's celebration was an amateur program with contestants from Sedgewick and surrounding towns and districts. It went over with a bang and there is natural to repeat next year. A reporter circulated through the crowd frequently just to hear how the program was going and never heard nothing but the most favorable of comments.

There was a softball tourney but we have been unable to contact the man with the results. Either he is in Jail or has left the country.

The dance at night catered to a overflow crowd of over 300 all of whom seemed to like the novelty of an open air dance.

Individual Hands

IT is individual hands like these which have built this nation. Working in a system of Free Enterprise they have guided Canada to the high standard of living our citizens enjoy today.

With faith in the future men and women work more eagerly. They know their individual initiative and enterprise will produce its worthwhile reward. The thousands of well established farms throughout Alberta justify this faith. They also justify the system of Free Enterprise which makes them possible. These farms today belong to free men and women. But they will remain so only as long as men and women treasure the right to dream, to hope and to plan; and only as long as you and your neighbors value the privilege that enables your individual enterprise to make your dreams, hopes and plans come true.

Calgary Power Ltd. with its many shareholders, has pioneered with you in building Alberta. Share your faith in Alberta's future. Calgary Power plans and builds for the years ahead.

INTERESTING SYMBOL

In the British House of Commons, when a Speaker is chosen, this is done before hand, and when the House meets the Clerk of the House rises and points his finger silently at the Member who was chosen. Then two Members catch him by the arms and force him to the Speaker's chair, with real evidence of unwillingness on his part — even going to the point of shaking his fist at those who escort him. The point is that being Speaker years ago meant being the officer of the House of commons who spoke to the King, very severely sometimes, about the liberties of the people and the amount of the people's income which the King was spending. It was sometimes a rather risky post to hold.

The full symbolism is not used at Ottawa. There is no, the same great evidence of unwillingness on the part of a new Speaker. It would be a good thing perhaps if the old-fashioned rituals were perpetuated in detail. The theory of democratic government is that the man who serves the public does so at a loss and inconvenience. He risks unpopularity. He undertakes an unpleasant and unprofitable task, because it is his duty to do so.

It seems a long time ago since anyone mentioned this in Canada. It seems until a year ago that the idea was changed, and Canadians were given to understand that it is a privilege, or an honor, or a public office, was a sort of privilege, paying very good returns, not to be sought after — not avoided.

This is all evidence of the change which has come over the idea of government in the democracies. Where governments and their officials were supposed to be servants of the people, elected to serve the people well, they were paid and trusted about as poorly as servants often are. There has grown up the idea that Ministers, Members of Parliament and the civil servants are specially favored class of people, who have won great privileges, for which they must be well rewarded. It is now becoming rather improper to say that a government is built up, or that it wastes money, or that it tries all kind of experiments without sufficient thought. People in this country have been heard to say that anyone who says that the Prime Minister at any time is not fit for his job is being a disloyal citizen.

Probably it is not possible to go the whole way to the old system, but sensible men will agree that it would be a good thing if there were a little more of the idea that public office of any sort is sometimes undertaken unwillingly, at loss and inconvenience, even at the risk of unpopularity, for the solitary purpose of serving the nation unselfishly.

HIGHWAY 13 MUDHOLE

There is no doubt but what any motorist who has been unfortunate enough to have to travel on our so called Highway 13, would not hesitate a second in denouncing the man responsible as an absolute insult to the intelligence of the motorists who are forced to make use of it. Could be that the government calculates on it. So low that Highway 13 just doesn't enter into their scheme of things at all. If such is the case, I think that a solution has been found.

Let a delegation of us hire a one-ton truck, over inflate the tires (to make certain of maximum discomfort) and in this the Minister of Public Works, the Deputy Minister, and A. Edward Fee to join us in a motoring binge from Hardisty to Camrose. Local road crews could follow in the company of the chief engineer, in a gravel truck, to take notes on needed repairs, and to enjoy the discomfort of their superiors.

There was a time when man in his modesty enjoyed a fairly fast and comfortable ride on country roads and on two track prairie trails; but unfortunately man and civilization advanced and vanity demanded wider, elevated and graveled roads on which he must travel slower and with much less comfort.

I said above that Highway 13 is an insult to the motorist and I retract not one iota in that statement. It is also a reflection on the intelligence of the Provincial Government and the Dept. of Public Works in as much as they are content to see a multi-thousand dollar investment going to pieces before their very eyes.

There is only one way to remedy this situation and that is for the people to make their voices heard. Annoy the government with petitions and delegations. Hammer away at them through Boards of Trade and Farm Groups etc., and keep hammering away until in their weariness Mr. Manning et al will once again give us a road fit to travel on.

PRESBYTERIAN LADIES ASSN.

Mrs. Floyd Robinson was hostess on Thursday when the Presbyterian Ladies held their July meeting with 18 members answering the roll.

Mrs Roberts had charge of the Scripture Study and Mrs Simmonds the prayer. A number of minor matters occupied the business half hour. Mission Study was continued with Mrs Ross Grant in charge. The hostess was assisted during the lunch period by Mrs Fairweather and Mrs Roberts. A former member, Mrs Morgan, was a welcome guest.

WEDDING

STRANDMAN — McCRACKEN

A setting of pink and white peonies formed an attractive background in Sedgewick United Church on Wednesday afternoon last when Helen Kathleen, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs Arthur McCracken became the bride of Mr. Ernest Frances, second son of Mrs. Hannie Stendsmo and the late Mr. H. Stendsmo of Battle Bend district. The ceremony was performed by the Pastor Rev. M. MacLean. The guest pews were marked by bands of white satin ribbon.

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the bride wore a floor-length traditional gown of white satin, styled with a peplum and puff sleeve tops. A sweet heart neck line was a feature of the slim bodice. Her fingertip veil was held in place with white orange blossoms, and she carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty red roses. Her only jewelry was a gold pendant and chain, a gift of the groom. Mrs. Les Fraser the groom's sister, attended the bride as matron of honour, choosing for her gown, a pastel shade of mauve also fashioned with a fitted bodice. Her headdress was of net and she carried a bouquet of roses and snap dragon. Mr. William Stendsmo, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Mr. Grant Dack and Mr. John Stendsmo. Mrs H. H. Wilson played the wedding music, and the soloist was Mrs Howard Smith, who sang, "Through The Years" during the signing of the register. The bride's gift to the matron of honor, organist and soloist was to each a pair of nylons.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McCracken chose a dress of pastel silk, accessoring to match and corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother was attired in a printed jersey and her corsage was yellow roses.

The bride's father and mother and the groom's mother and brother received with the bridal party when around 150 guests gathered at the home of the bride's parents to attend a reception. The bride's table was centered with a white lace cloth and tiered wedding cake, decorated with a miniature bride and groom and white orange blossoms. Pink and white streamers and bells and flowers were used in decorating the house and barn. Rev. MacLean proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom responded. A toast to the bride's mother was proposed by Mr. Ray Davis to which Mr. McCracken replied. The bride graduated from Sedgewick Central High school, attended University in Edmonton for two years, and just completed a term of teaching at Sunnyhil school. The groom spent two years overseas and since then farming in the Battle Bend district, where the happy young couple will reside. For their honeymoon the bride wore a wine gabardine suit with accessories to match. Many friends wish them a long and happy married life.

CAMERON — WHITBECK

The United Church in Sedgewick was the scene of a quiet wedding on Wednesday July 12th, when Miss Catharine Meinon Whitbeck, daughter of Mr and Mrs A. G. Whitbeck of Lougheed became the bride of Mr. Charles Edward Cameron, son of Mr and Mrs C. L. Cameron of Sedgewick Rev. M. MacLean officiated.

The bride wore a charming gabardine suit with grey accessories and a corsage of salmon pink carnations. Her only jewelry was a heart shaped locket, gift of the groom. Miss Louise Whitbeck, sister of the bride, was bride-maid. She wore a brown tailored suit with contrasting grey and brown accessories and a corsage of red carnations. Mr. Andy Cameron, cousin of the groom was best man.

Mr and Mrs Cameron will honeymoon in Calgary, and upon return will reside on their farm South of Lougheed, Alberta.

DANMAN — CHRISTENSON

Bethania Lutheran Church was the scene of an attractive afternoon wedding on July 8th, when Dorothy Christine Christenson and Ernest Maxwell Danman exchanged wedding vows. Rev. I. Rongen officiated.

88 P. C FAVORABLE VOTE FOR HARDISTY SEWER PLAN

The last obstacle in the Town of Hardisty's plan to install water and sewage systems has been removed with the turnout of the vote, made on July 17th. Properly loaded voted for the By Laws and the installation of water and sewer in the town with an overwhelming 88 percent favorable ballot. It is very gratifying to know that the plan will be carried out at last and we look forward to the day when we can turn on the tap rather than run to the well.

A good turn-out of the ratepayers went to the poll, as the town office registered almost 65 percent of those listed as having cast their ballot

After looking over the list of those who have departed from our fair town, we might think that there was something lacking in local attraction. We have a lovely lake with a good beach and diving equipment, and why anyone could pass it up on the way out of town is beyond me. Considering a car you put on your tires, baked the gas you burn, the oil you use, the sleep you miss. But as the saying goes the grass always looks deeper and greener in the next field. When they all come back after not enjoying anything better, won't they be sorry! So we will continue after that brief interval.

Thro' The Window At Lougheed

Well, Lougheed district seems to be the chosen land this year. We have had some of the most lovely rainfalls in years. I took out at my garden and catch myself humming, "Showers Of Blessing" that is until mother points to the lawn mower or hedge clippers, then the tune takes a new twist to "Why Did I Get Married?" Just had a bout with the hedge, had to pitch myself on the job as it's fun and job is something new to hedge outfits. A kind of a cross between a Negro bob and a permanent wave. Not sure if anything we have two of our senior ladies on town that several could then should make them feel a kinship. My pointers have grown large and so fast I had to dig out every other hill to give the rest a chance to expand. The sweet peas that I started as early staking up, grew so much over night that next day the vines were hanging in their branches about as to hes above ground. Looks like we will have a garden this year, coming to try a new experiment going to keep a bunch of carrots over winter and feed them nothing but grass. If they cultivate a taste for it, maybe next spring when I turn them loose on the lawn they will cut it instead of my vegetable and keep me from pushing the mower.

Mr and Mrs Tom Mullin of White Bird B.C. spend a week end with his Brother-in-law P.D. Kirkman, and is visiting other Alberta points.

Pat Frost is handling the shipping end of the sponsors for Swift and Co. while the is taking a much needed rest in B.C. with her old townsmen R. Sandberg. If H Glaister is master mechanic of the sound trucks and fitchers. That Olie must be some man, with one branch of his business closed, it takes two men to look after what's left.

We've heard all kinds of fish stories this year. The latest is of a Killam party on holiday at a resort. The only one caught was running through a stop light. Oh well, a fin kept it out of the locker.

Mr and Mrs Kiesler and daughter of Ashmont were guests of Mr and Mrs T. J. Jones recently.

Born—To Mr and Mrs Gerhard Wiebe at Killam, a daughter on July 7th; Carol Marie. Congrats.

Mr and Mrs Tommy Barton motored to Bittern Lake to bring back her sister Eileen who is on the nursing staff at Edmonton, for a short visit in the Green Valley district.

The Geo. Mariner family is rather scattered this week. Geo. is with the pipe line gang at Camrose; Jean is visiting in Edmonton, Gordie and Karis are holidaying at grandad's farm at Strome; Mrs Mariner left for a short trip to Camrose, with the possibility of attending it to Edmonton. Only the hound remains.

Rev Howard Pupo on the upper deck of ladder giving his garage a coat of paint, and doing quite an artistic job. Howard is in somewhat of a quandary; he has a nice new car garage and two cars. He can never decide which to put in, so he leaves them both out. Oh well, it makes a nice playhouse for the children.

I dropped past the Manawee Church and on my way the earth was flying thought there must be a body or at work; then discovered it was his Rev. excavating for the installation of the church furnace. Was that remains the real thing, it looked as though the pipe line had overlooked a good bet in not engaging his Rev. If they wanted to make the Lakeland before winter.

Mrs McIlwain of Hughenden visited her daughter Mrs H Whitehead last week, enroute to Strome to visit Miss Alexandria Isaacson from New York he on a months visit here with her uncle A V Johnson and family.

The Alex Barker family spent a few days fishing at Buck Lake and made up 22 assorted finnies in the lake, a real time was of passing the hours on the most question ever fall.

The district was shocked and saddened last week on receipt of word of a fatal accident to a local party, a Mr. Sam Cooper of Calgary. The party, composed of Edmund Smith Mr and Mrs. Tate and 2 children and Mrs. Cooper's father Harry Granville, were enroute to Calgary Stampede when their car, driven by Edmund Smith was in a collision with another car, resulting in death of Murray Lane and serious injury to all the others. Injuries are lacking, but Mr. and Mrs. Lane are reported in very serious condition and all the others apparently to a lesser degree, but at time of going all are still in hospital. Our deepest sympathy and best wishes are extended to all.

Mr. Carl Johnson and son Verne motored to Lone Lake the week end of last week, to pay respects to the newlyweds, Dr and Mrs. Elmer Johnson.

The Red rose seem to be playing hide and seek these days. Jack and his two sisters motored to Vancouver but brother George was to busy for them but missed him by one day. Then had word George arrived in Lougheed in time to join Jack and Jenny (Mrs Carr) but other sister had returned to Sask. Gee, is leaking well, B C must agree with him.

The Greenfield community picnic held at Greenfield school on the 5th, had an attendance of about 50, and while primarily a kiddies' affair, was enjoyed by young and old, with games ever valley and oodles of ice cream and other refreshments. Well what is there but kids at a picnic? If you can't be or imagine you are one for the day, you shouldn't be there. It is never as late as you think 'tis a pe

Remember the fun we had in the old days, riding in a democrat behind a slow horse to a picnic at Pendleton's Lakes, Groveland or Goose Creek or some other spot? Shucks it beat your auto trip to some touted resort a mile. We were all friends and neighbors and glad of it.

Mr and Mrs Gilbert Erickson from Edmonton visited friends and relatives at Killam on their way to spend a short visit with his sister, Mrs. Glen Hammond.

Elliot Weir spent a few days as a Stampede visiting Penny what a difference location makes. We'll bet what looks to Elliot and others like a beautiful table on their farm, don't look half as nice at a Stampede.

I never did like that term "friends and relatives." Can anyone suggest an alternative? It's too suggestive and almost implies that relatives are not also friends, or are they? It always reminds of that old song "Heaven gave us our RELATIVES but thank God we can choose our friends."

We are heard a spot doing the town the other night in a new car equipped with a wail whistle. He serenaded each street he came to but all that followed him was a bunch of hungry hounds. Mice chased him, took one look and came back to me. He couldn't have been so much to look at.

Mrs C. Lawrence left for Calgary last week to bring back the 2 grandchildren, who will remain here while their mother Mrs Wm. Grandage undergoes medical treatment in hospital We wish her speedy and complete recovery and hope she will soon be able to join the children here.

Mr and Mrs Martin Gosbell and daughter of Turner Valley, visited the Roland Van Iwaark family of Hardisty last week.

Co-op Flour

Why is our Co-op Flour slightly darker in color than other nationally advertised flours? Until recently Mills have been using a bleaching process called the "Agene" process. This process does a good bleaching job, but it was discovered that it had a full effect on the finished product which adversely affect the user. The Co-op Mill is now using and approved "Dyox" process which all Mills will be compelled to use in the near future. Co-op Flour is sold on a Money Back Guarantee.

WE WELCOME YOU!

TO CANADIAN RAILROADERS AND THE CANADIAN PUBLIC

It is important that you understand clearly why the managements of Canada's railways believe a railway strike is absolutely unnecessary.

Our reason for this conviction is that we have made the employees involved in the present dispute a fair offer of wage increases and improvements in working conditions which, if applied to all employees, will cost us $37,000,000 a year.

We have further acknowledged a moral obligation to implement the 40-hour week at the appropriate time, and we have explained why, in fairness to Canadian industry and all other employers of labour, we cannot put it into effect now.

To do otherwise would be to perform a disservice to industry in general and to all employers and employees alike.

The railways, after making two previous offers which the union leaders rejected, have now made a third and final offer which gives the employees the choice of either:

an increase in wages averaging 8½ cents per hour, or a reduction in the basic work week from 48 to 44 hours, with an increase in wage rates of 9.1% so as to maintain or in some cases improve present "take home" pay.

The labour leaders have made no concessions at all and have refused to budge from their original demands for a 5-day 40-hour week with maintenance of present "take home" pay, and in addition increases of 7 cents and 10 cents an hour.

The railways are thoroughly conscious of, and sympathetic to, the problems of their employees resulting from higher costs of living.

Drastic, unwarranted reductions in hours of work instead of decreasing these problems will inevitably increase them.

... strike ballot which has been reported by the ... labour ... management ... in opinion of the loyalty ... fairness and sense of responsibility of the ... to believe a strike would ... a heart-breaking situation for ... It is not to say this will ... along to strike if union ... to call upon them to do so but ... 17 ... of millionaires ...

... importance of the railways in Canada's ... to 1935, rated ... ... ever appeared ... Well and without the loyalty ... of all railway employees ... that effort would have ...

possible. The same holds true today. As the president ... further stated:

"... the general public is inconvenienced and ... arrangements are made uncertain so long as the likelihood of a strike persists. Moreover, a railway strike would so cripple our economy that it would weaken for a long time our ability to take a strong line in international affairs and thus give great comfort to the enemy. Therefore, railway management feels strongly that the issues must be faced resolutely so that all interests, the worker, the public, and the Government, as well as the unions and railway management, will know precisely what is facing them. The time has come to remove this uncertainty which hangs as a blight over our day-to-day life."

WITH THESE CONSIDERATIONS IN MIND, THE RAILWAYS HAVE MADE THIS OFFER AS THE ULTIMATE THAT COULD POSSIBLY BE EXPECTED OF THEM, AND IT GIVES A SETTLEMENT WHICH WILL LEAVE RAILWAY WORKERS IN AN EXTREMELY FAVOURABLE POSITION COMPARED TO OTHER INDUSTRIAL WORKERS.

HERE IS OUR OFFER

1. ... offer which includes hotel and ... transport employees ... as follows:
(1) Recognition by railway management of a moral obligation to implement the 40-hour week at the appropriate time
(2) Recognition by the unions in principle, subject to negotiation in detail, of many amendments to existing contracts covering working rules to bring about more efficient operation.
(3) EITHER
(A) A 44-hour basic work week with a 9.1% increase in hourly rates so as to maintain "take home" pay. In regard to monthly rated clerical employees there will be an understanding that a 5-day school week may be granted by local arrangement in selected cases where the hours now actually worked are less than 44, on condition that the requirements of the service are maintained up to 44 hours per week.
OR (B) A graduated increase in basic wage rates approximately equivalent in expense to that involved under Plan A. When applied to all employees, this would cost the railways $37,000,000 per year, and would average 8½ cents per hour.

FORMER BARBARA ANDERSON FETED BY FRIENDS

A very pleasing event took place in the Presbyterian Church basement on August 16th when about forty friends of Mrs Don McKinnon formerly Barbara Anderson gathered to wish her the best of everything in her married life. A short but gay program of games preceded the first part of which a "shower" wagon (omitted last) appropriately the Barbara Ann's was placed before the bride by two small girls, Connie Lorson and Kathy Kolender. In a few appropriate words, Mrs. Rose Grant conveyed to Barbara the good wishes of all, and asked her acceptance of their gifts. After all of the parcels were opened and admired the bride expressed sincere thanks to her friends, and all enjoyed a very delicious lunch.

Prosperous Farms Mean a Prosperous Canada

Power Farming is the Modern Way of Prosperous Farming

The last five years have been the most prosperous in Canada's history. Good markets and good prices for farm products have given great agricultural prosperity.

Farmers have had the incentive and means to buy goods and services in large volume and this has helped to create more jobs at better wages in industrial areas.

New and better machines have made it possible for fewer farmers to produce more in less time with less work and at less cost than ever before.

Massey-Harris tractors and power farming machines offer the latest developments in equipment designed and built for modern farming.

PERSONAL STUFF

By A.W.H.

The way things move today, it is quite likely that by the time this reaches print, something will have been done to get the trade with Canada running again. When I say I hope it will be done in the fullest meaning, because sometimes there are moves which proceed with painful slowness.

The slowness with which the Prime Minister moved in calling Parliament is a good illustration, and but goes to prove what we already know, that our Prime Minister is not a final public servant, nor a man who is compelled to act quickly and decisively, even in time of disaster. The very fact that the strike was announced by the Capital not placed the Prime Minister in a bad light as a leader of men, and first man of a great nation.

Parliament is now in session, and unless restrictions are placed on debate the "get-together" is most likely to be an endless chain of meaningless innuendos and political party orations. Parliament should get the job done quickly and efficiently with the least possible harm to either party concerned.

The sad part of the whole affair is that if Parliament can now settle the dispute, it could have done so before the strike ever took place.

The way living costs have been soaring it is difficult to estimate how railway wages compare, but one thing is very certain, and that is that raising wages is not the entire answer. Cost of living must be checked. One must move, the other on equal terms to the present prices will continue to tighten and will finally clamp a strangle hold on supply and demand, while could eventually cause people to become so discontented with our democratic blunderings that changes will have to be made in our national set-up. It can't happen here you say! Don't fool yourself. Do you believe for one minute that there are not hundreds of people in Canada today who would welcome a nation at upheaval? Now is a very good time to keep a strong grip on the lines.

Don't think for one minute that I am classing all railway employees as trouble makers. Some of Canada's finest citizens are found amongst them. But it is also true that railways hire a large percentage of men who claim nationality born to be trouble makers.

Why an employee should demand pay for 30, or 6 day and then only work five, is hard to swallow. If he works 5 days let him get paid for 5. What that pay should be is not for me to say, but certainly it should be right up in line with the living index. There is too great a tendency today to get something for nothing, and the only solution I know of for this growing wrong is a swing away from the materialistic and a return to the spiritual way of life, for only by training men's minds to spiritual values rather than material ambitions will we be able to keep the future from enguifing us completely in a world situation from which man in his ignorance will be totally unable to extricate himself or his fellow men.

Thro' The Window At Lougheed

We had often heard of it raining cats and dogs, but never until last week did we hear of it [raining] sparrows. Frank Matthews of the district claims when he came to view the wreckage of his barn after the storm a couple days ago he counted 96 dead sparrows and two crows.

Mrs. Aronson Sr. returned from Camrose with Mr and Mrs I. Stokke to spend a couple of weeks with relatives and friends here.

Miss Flo Barton is spending some time these nice rainy type days, a snappy looking little wagon.

Mrs. M Olson of Vancouver is visiting her brother Carl Wangen Sr. and Mrs Howard Kirk of Camrose also visited Carl, who is her uncle.

I had promised myself not to comment on the railway strike, but find such a course impossible, as according to help everyone should be happy now. For years we old timers have longed for the good old days and it looks as if we will get our wish, in a short time when our axe and fodder is exhausted we can hook the clock back 40 years, hitch up our old dobbin or the oxen and be ourselves to Wetaskiwin or Vermilion for our supplies. Won't that be just too dicky. Of course we won't have to bring back the neighborhood and they did. The P.O. Dept., and the taxi, bus, truck and phone have taken care of that. I was a little worried it might be too big for them and had made my own arrangements with a borrowed Indian motorcycle and sidestitch to Seattle's wheelbarrow, but they fallen down, the other Tuesday morning would have seen Scotty chug chugging down Main St with the cry, the mail must get through'. Oh yes, we want those good old days back like a bespectacled husband wants two mothers in law.

We don't know who gets the white gloves or the gold headed cane or, whatever the award is, but Dave Pope and Harold Probst were neck and neck delivering the [illegible] 1950 rye crop to Lashley (Pool Elevator), while Jos. Jablonski had the field to himself delivering the first 1950 wheat to others (Pool No. 1). All good samples. Later ones most refers to grain only.

We learn a little each day, we hope, so when one of our inclined poultry now residing elsewhere don't be enjoyed the Community Picnic but would like a little better report on local weather conditions, re his point, for as he stated when raining in Edmonton and it may not be here and vice versa. We can understand a man on the farm here and a home in Edmonton would be much more interested in the flood here than collar there, and in future we will try to keep all informed of prevailing conditions from seeding until harvest. We had never really thought of this interesting news subject as foliage or absolute drouth. But we say, we see the light now and if I forget the best won't [illegible] whether it's cold or whether it's hot we have got to weather it some or not.

Our old townsman Mr Weir and wife of what any of them stand for, but the old town a visit last week. He was enroute from Ottawa to Wainwright by plane on Gen't business, but was grounded at Calgary and [illegible] Newspapers were different in those days too, no fone, and each bit or type had to be handled separately, both setting up and knocking down, and the issue was run off not by pushing a switch and turning on the juice, but by some old remote hunt hired for the occasion turning the fly wheel by means of a handle. Yes, I surely enjoyed my trip back to Parent without leaving my own office, thanks to Victor Pettypiece and the Forest Free Press.

By the time you read this issue you will know why the young fry have been wearing that smile, School days are here again. The Lougheed teaching staff is complete, consisting of Miss Betty Cameron (formerly of Edmonton); Mr C Jenkins of Sedgwick and Mrs Geo. Marlow. Will we regret losing the services of Mrs. two farmer teachers, Mrs D Burden and Mrs Lars Smethem, we welcome our two new additions and hope they will like their new positions. There are a lot of nice people in Lougheed and we know that number will be increased by two with the starting of the school term.

Mr and Mrs Ed Chase and son Ron of Pertenia paid a short visit with Mr and Mrs Arvid Peterson.

Ivan Reed has joined the R C A F and is stationed at Aylmer, Ont. He is somewhat behind brother Merlin who RR the RCN a year ago but being stationed at Aylmer, He shouts soon ketchup.

Mrs W Berryman of Port Moody, B.C. is here on a visit to her brother and mother Mrs A. Aronson

Mr and Mrs. Fred Gibbons of Edmonton are spending a holiday with her brother Harry Barton and other relatives at Green Valley.

This could happen to you. Last week Black Rose, purchased a truck and on the road home they were startled to hear a faint cry of Ma Ma apparently coming from the body of the truck. Looking at each other the boys cried 'ood 'oh no, not us' A short time later the cry was repeated and investigation disclosed a mama doll that had been overlook ed by previous owners, wedged back of the seat and bumps in the road caused it to give forth its plaintive cry. Both boys are doing well.

Congrats to Mr and Mrs Olaf Larson (Ena Johnson) of Brooks on the new daughter.

Doris Ward of Innisfail paid the old village a visit last Saturday.

Mrs Louis Bartlett spent a few days visiting friends and relatives in Calgary, bringing back her two children who have visited there.

Keith Pedlar has returned after a short holiday. He says the way not to enjoy a holiday is to get laid up with the flu. Tough luck, but glad it was no worse.

The Warren and Bertost families are away holidaying at present. Known There boy scouts will not start, when the grain begins rolling in to the elevator.

Mrs Obermeyer and two children of Carnation have been visiting h mother Mrs. Tom Kenny

Mrs. Ivor Stokke entertained Lutheran Ladies Aid last Friday, good crowd, including pouns and partook of a delightful lunch

Mr and Mrs Basil Hilton Cobb and three children, who are [illegible] yon's furlough from their duties as [illegible] duties in Nigeria, are visiting her parents Mr and Mrs F [illegible] and friends and relatives here in [illegible] Limited, they left on Tuesday for Toronto and points East before turning to their duties [illegible] Their elder boy, who has been living in Canada, will return with [illegible] while the other will remain [illegible] schooling. The Smiths [illegible] many years in Nigeria, to [illegible] their furlough They look a looking extremely well

In last week's issue we [illegible] give a list of the runners and [illegible] of the preceding three weeks, [illegible] publication, and we [illegible] Colonel some for which we apologize. The fact was we were so pleased to see them back we did not want to share the pleasure with anyone else and so placed it back here.

Elmer Stokke's two children [illegible] been spending a week with Mr [illegible] Ivar Stokke.

Weather to 26th, is alright [illegible] and on the road for haying. Feathing and combing is commencing.

DONKEY BASEBALL TO BE PLAYED AT KILLAM

The Killam Arena will be the scene of one of the most novel and amusing types of entertainment ever seen in these parts, on Thursday evening September 14th at 9 p.m. The S and D Amusement Co. from South Hollywood will present the laugh riot of the year — DONKEY BASEBALL. Members of the Killam ... will oppose members of the Board of Trade, each mounted on a trained donkey (at least when they start they are mounted). Everyone rides a donkey but the pitcher, the catcher and the batter. Fielders may dismount to pick up a ball but must get back on to throw. The game is a howl and has been a big success all over the west this year. It will be played in the arena under flood lights. Don't miss it. SEPT. 14th at 9:00 p.m. (Thursday).

Hardisty will oppose Lougheed in a Sunday ball game at the Hardisty Lake diamond on WED., SEPT. 13th at 9 p.m. under flood lights.

WEDDING

BERGUSON — MANNING

A pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday morning in St. Joseph's Church, Killam when Cecelia Jeanne Manning daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Manning of Killam became the bride of Gilbert Bergeson, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Bergeson of Killam. Rev. Father McCarthy officiated and celebrated Nuptial Mass. The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a floor length gown of white satin styled with fitted bodice and full crinoline skirt and featuring puff petal sleeves and lace yoke. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of pearls and she carried a bouquet of red roses. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls with matching ear rings, a gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by her sister Miss Rosemary Manning, who wore a floor length pink taffeta gown with matching headdress and carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and carnations. Eddie Kember attended the groom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs Manning wore a dress of old rose ... with a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Bergeson, mother of the groom chose a printed silk dress and with it wore a corsage of pink and white roses. The church was beautifully decorated with gladioli and other flowers. Mrs. Hodges ... nee was organist and Mrs. Marcel Jeanne soloist and sang 'What Hape ... (nee Ilene) Mines' and other selections, ably assisted by the choir. Ushers were Charles Manning and Vernon Bierbrichen.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the parish hall for 45 guests. The bride's table was centered by a tiered wedding cake and the tables were decorated with pink dahlias and sweet peas. Fr. McCarthy proposed the toast to the bride which was responded to by the groom. In the evening a dance was held for the bridal couple after which they left by car for a short honey moon at Calgary. On their return

Hardisty Happenings

Mr Dave Ward of Clair was a Hardisty visitor on Monday.

Mrs Tom Bowen spent Tuesday and Wed. in town visiting with her friends and relatives.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs A. Fisher is a patient in hospital.

Also on the sick list this week is Mrs J Lucas. We wish you a speedy recovery to health.

Mrs Dale accompanied her grandson to Edmonton where he will board the C N R for Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs T Peat and family of Edmonton arrived in town Tuesday and are taking up residence in the Grand May house. Mr Peat is an employee of the C P R.

The school has a new slate of teachers this year except for a few pupils. Principal is Mr Thomp[illegible] with Ria Vida and son have moved in the Erickson house. Other new residents are Miss Alam, Miss Clark and Miss Lonely of Hardisty.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Quesnel and the latter's mother[illegible] returned to Veteran last week to visit with friends. Need will remain for a few weeks.

A former resident of Hardisty and now living at Edmonton (Mr and Mrs Jack McPherson) have a baby daughter, Cheryl Ann.

Another brand new arrival in the district is the son born to Mr. and Mrs Elden Bone on Aug. 31st in Mayerthorpe hospital.

Mr. and Mrs Clare who have been away through the Lake Wabamun district for the past two weeks returned to their home in Hardisty on Saturday.

Mr Frank Paige gave a bit of a surprise this week with a short visit to Hardisty. Not long ago we saw Frank and asked him where he was working this year. His reply was very definite — nowhere. The other day he said very meekly that he had been hospitalized into taking a post from with the school at Provost. It seems that a man can't get out of the rut once he's in it.

Mr and Mrs R Drover motored to Kitscoty to visit her parents.

Miss Orlene Miller has been the guest of the R Drovers.

Mr and Mrs Jack Meeve of Killam were week end visitors at the Dave Hamilton farm.

Thro' The Window At Lougheed

Ray McCracken, Jack Stoodley, Bill Whitehead and Allen McCoy motored to St. Paul on Sunday last. Allen drove a combine belonging to McCracken Agency, the others enjoyed a little fishing enroute.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sax visited the latter's family at Calgary last week. Frank brought back a new car which had been overhauled.

Jack Swanson, Gary returned with his dad on a short visit.

Word was that old timer Chas. Ball was in town the once over Monday last week. Chas seems to be getting a few odd years very well for a boy of his years many more.

Jack Cockrell and Bill Sykes drove to Edmonton to Midget speedway last week. Was thought he was on a ball team but a phone call to return to Lougheed that instant.

We saw the show that week in Killam, Temptation. Guess I'll go, kind of curious to see what temptation is when seen in a screened, black and white picture in a hurry. This should be much finer.

We said really has to know why the Lougheed patrons can spot a drop of gasoline in the tank of an auto but cannot keep up to a dozen cars and trucks parked together on highway sometimes on both sides of the road, said cars being parked right up to the corner of main street completely shutting off the view of any one coming onto the highway. What is the use of safety weeks and blasting on the radio and in the press with dangerous and illegal practices allowed to continue year after year. Instead of spotting the culprits Mr. X we can expect to see a few spot of an accident. Once the grain trucks begin to roll another explosion is in a hurry. The line of present accidents is before they begin. Wake up. Do it now. The R.C.M.P. detachment have no control over Highway 12.

The next meeting of the Ladies Aid will be held at home of Mrs. Chas. Graham at Sedgewick the 1st Thursday in September.

Mrs. Matthews of Edmonton and former resident of the Jarrow district is visiting Ray McCrackens.

Some guys have a wonderful sense of humor. Jim has I was enjoying this fresh fall weather he sticks his head in the door and says 'Have you ordered your winter's coal yet?' Where I told him to go they use all the best necessary.

Shaw our friend, Miss McLeod renewing acquaintances on Monday last. He was looking well as came here.

Maynard McCune paid a visit to his sister Mrs. Jack Swanson before returning to his home at Rocky Mountain House.

Miss Ina emery Cookson, Lougheed and Miss Irene Cockrell of Two spent the week-end with Ray and Mrs. Tom Cookson.

Congrats to Mr. and Mrs. Rasgreaves on their arrival on 21st at Killam hospital.

A friend of mine, known as who asked to call ball game at Hardisty Lake later when he found out that he was to play on the engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Dawson from their home in Mr. and are visiting with Mr. Pope and other friends and Killam district.

Andy Birchall is back to work driving in the 1st Austin ing his last with Cockrell.

Chas Beckmann was a visitor last week

Ray McCracken, all several Massey Harris dealers last week. Take note, the way either to keep that boy's banner liable.

Many of the local people appointed when last week above had to be cancelled account arrival of Temptation film.

Miss Dorothy Lamarsh of Killam is spending the long week with her parents Knute Lamarsh.

The Lougheed Legion's 4 pieces of both the dance floor waltz on the 21st. If anyone please their 1st one both in dance and popularity. The the items orchestra was the high class and combined with calling of Mr. Barnett of Killam would put pep in the legs of a table. The winners for the time in square dance was Walter Paterson; Mrs P Frost; Mr and Mrs Henry Lein; Mr and Mrs J. A. Clements; Mr and Mrs Norm Dunbar while the prize for the waltz was taken by Mr and Mrs Willie

BANG'S DISEASE AND HUMANS

(By L. D. Williams, D.A.)

People are in danger of getting undulant fever when there is Bang's Disease in the herd. They can get the disease by drinking raw milk from infected cows, if a man help ing with the raising of a lamb is infected ewe can get the infection thro cuts and scratches on his hands or arms. A good scrubbing with soap and water immediately with lots of lather on the cuts is a must after the calving cows. Bottling or pasteurizing the milk makes it safe to drink

DOES A VACCINE CAUSE BANG'S DISEASE?

Definitely not. The Vaccine stimulates the cell's body to develop an infection which gives it a resistance to Bang's Disease. By vaccinating all heifer calves in an infected herd before they are 8 months old, the disease can be built up. Any of the original reactors can be used for slaughter as the vaccinated mature. In a closed herd of vaccinates, the antibodies built up by the vaccine will prevent, within good limitations if the disease is introduced unexpectedly.

IMPORTANT

Good herd management and sanitation are other key weapons in the fight against Bang's Disease. At the time of abortion in the dangerous stage for the spread of Bang's, scours should be put in a maternity pen for 2 weeks or until there is no discharge. The immature calf, after birth and bedding should be burnt. Consult your District Agriculturist or Veterinarian about additionals to the Herd and controlling the disease.

THANK YOU

He wishes to thank especially the Sisters of the General hospital, Doctor Vol cshin and Nurse Pauzch for their kindness and loving care shown to Mrs. Grant. 36 1 p Bell.

DONKEY BASEBALL TO BE PLAYED AT KILLAM

The Killam Arena will be the scene of one of the most novel and amusing types of entertainment ever seen in these parts, on Thursday evening September 14th at 9 p.m. The S and D Amusement Co. from North Hollywood will present the laugh riot of the year — DONKEY BASEBALL. Members of the Killam Legion will oppose members of the Board of Trade, each mounted on a trained donkey (at least when they start they are mounted). Everyone rides a donkey but the pitcher, in catcher and the batter. Fielders may dismount to pick up a ball but must get back on to throw. This game is a hoot and has been a big success all over the west this year. It will be played in the arena under flood lights. Don't miss it. SEPT. 14th at 9:00 p.m. (Thursday).

LETTER TO EDITOR

Hardisty, Sept 12th

Dear Sir —

I saw your write-up not long ago about the condition of Highway 13 I would like to endorse it up with a few observations.

I motored to the city the other day for a brief holiday. Yet, I had a very nice trip thank you. It was a nice day and the road was — well we won't go into that matter. After all Highway 13 is a very convenient route by which one can travel from Hardisty to Camrose, much better than going across country. A great deal of trouble would be encountered by some that way due to the ground being [illegible] in places by the highway — there are as yet no trees protecting through the road bed

Another beautiful feature of this road is the fact that there are a number of well equipped Garages along the route which are all ready and willing to replace, at a nominal charge any springs that one might break on the rough spots; as well as the fact that there are three or four well-stafted hospitals which will do their best to repair your broken body should you be lacking enough in skill so to hit the ditch in trying to avoid the manholes which are liberally spaced on the road.

I am working on the plans for the construction of small holdsmer shacks which can be attached in front of most any car, and can be raised or lowered from a dash control, and would no doubt help to take the tops off some of the larger bumps. A point could be set up somewhere on Highway 13 where this article could be manufactured and supplied by the Government free of charge to those motorists who are unfortunate driver on the road, and at a cost much less than the amount which said Government seems so reluctant to spend putting the road in shape

Any readers who are interested in this project would no doubt receive the gratitude of all concerned if they would contact the Gov. in this regard. I could write more on it — but, but after spending a week on the road I had to re —

PERSONAL STUFF

By A.W.E.

Today my daughter, who is seven years old, started to school as usual. She wore a dark blue dress with white collar. She had on black shoes and wore blue gloves. Her coloring-book whose name is "Dopey" sat on the front porch and whined his turn. She toted in the fatty of education. So she was forced to abandon it — at least for a while.

Last night we talked about school. She told me about the girl who sat in front of her .. the girl with the yellow curls... and the boy across the aisle who makes funny faces. She told me about her teacher who has eyes in the back of her head — and about the clown in the school. ... and about the big girl who doesn't believe in Santa Claus We talked about a lot of things tremendously vital, unimportant things, then we studied spelling reading an arithmetic and then to bed

She's upstairs now.. sound asleep with Princess Elizabeth (Betty's baby) cuddled in her right arm. Tomorrow's school's hour her would you brush on the rough spots; as well as the fact that there are three or four well-stafted hospitals which will do their best to repair your broken body should you be lacking enough in skill so to hit the ditch in trying to avoid the manholes which are liberally spaced on the road.

I am working on the plans for the construction of small holdsmer shacks which can be attached in front of most any car, and can be raised or lowered from a dash control, and would no doubt help to take the tops off some of the larger bumps. "I enjoyed my shopping today!"

Yes, I really enjoyed my shopping trip—I bought all the things I saved for!

That's the way I plan my bigger purchases. They seem to come easier, and more quickly, when I put something into the bank regularly. I like the comforting feeling of watching my account grow.

I hate keeping too much cash around the house. It's so convenient to have the bank take care of it. And my bank book tells me where I stand.

I guess most women are much like me—housewives with modest savings who find their neighborhood bank handy, useful . . . always obliging.

SELLSHILL NEWS

Mr and Mrs Earl Kelly and girls of Rimbey were overnight guests of Wm. Albrecks last Sunday.

Art Armstrong took his new M.H. self propelled combine home Friday from the Allister agency.

The Walter Markwarte did the first threshing in this district and it was a lovely field of barley for Mr. Chas. Cameron Junior.

Just had word of the John Browns and glad to report they are in good health and at present out at Van couver where they are attending the youngest daughter's (Darla) wedding on Sept. 8th. Miss Mary and Josh also attended. Doris was born, grew up and was educated right at Sellshill, so on behalf of her old home community we wish her and her husband all the best of luck.

Belated birthday greetings and all best wishes to Mr. Tom Clark, our old neighbor who celebrated his 83rd birthday on Sept. 10th.

The country is filled with the buzz of combines etc. these days but the late showers have held things up a bit although not seriously.

Eddie Swanson has the Vic Kim berton crop all combined and is now working on Hunter White's.

Miss Ida Renshaw returned to the community last Saturday.

LOUGHEED W. I.

Lougheed W.I. was held in the Legion Hut with Mrs. Mussen in the chair. A discussion regarding the new fence for the cemetery was held and as the Council had not held their meeting little could be done. Letter from the Constituency Convenor regarding an exhibit for next year. We are sending for a course in Home Decorations to study at meetings.

It was decided to ask Mrs K John son to give a talk on Home Nursing at next meeting at Mrs Peterson's.

Beverly Barthel gave an interesting report for the WIOC. About $3.75 was realized from sale of housedresses. The meeting was turned over to the entertainment committee and the grandmothers welcomed and a corsage given each one. Each grand mother told how she met her husband. Mrs Beckmire won a prize for never having been a baby sitter.

Mrs Waite got a prize for being the eldest one present; Mrs Read for having the youngest grandchild, Mrs Stobbe for having dropped the most clothes pins in a bottle, Mrs Beckmire for having been married the youngest; Mrs McCoy for being the youngest; Mrs Thomas for not being away on a birthday and Mrs Bunter for having largest glove size. After the program the grandmothers visited and then were served supper. Mrs R. Wright thanked the W. I. on behalf of the grandmothers.

PERSONAL STUFF

By A.W.B.

I spent last Friday, Saturday and Sunday, along with some forty or fifty other Alberta weekly editors, as a guest of the Imperial Oil Company at Calgary and Banff. The plan of the trip was conceived by the Company to give me an opportunity to see at close hand the various power plants, dams and canal systems which combine to make the service with which the Company is able to serve its Alberta customers.

I am not here going to explain the mechanic and technical aspects of the various plants. That will come later after I have had time to get at the many details and arrange it in understandable language. For the present it will suffice to give a few details of the trip.

In company with Mr. Tommy Tanner, District Supervisor of Calgary Power of Cameron and Mr. Ken King, Postal Editor of the Camrose Canadian, I arrived in Calgary on Friday night and after the usual banquet at the Palliser Hotel, was quite merry awakened by the above mentioned Mr. King with, "Come on boy, it's daylight in the swamps. This at six a.m., was the start of a grand trip. We bounded two chartered buses out in out for the Spray Lake (to be opened next month) power plant and canal system. On the trip back to the highway we stopped at the construction camp and had a hotty meal of T-bone steaks with all the trimmings. On to Banff we were entertained at the Canadian Home over Sunday during which time we viewed the Dam at Lake Minnewanka and Ghost River, along with the big canals and power plants. Here I had the pleasure of seeing a power plant being constructed, having the functions of giant turbines and other equipment explained to me in detail. Here also I witnessed a power point started up by remote control from miles away. Did you know that every time you turn on an electric light it necessitates a minor automatic adjustment in this power plant of the water control line?

On the way back to Calgary Sunday evening, I talked shop with the various Publishers present and also picked up a few pointers. The outing was above average considering the occupation of the vacationists, and led by Tommy Tanner and his Waist barstone and Charlie Clark (Mt. River) with a surprising fine team of voices, we had quite a time.

It was an enjoyable and enlightening trip, and I will have more to tell you later on, with a few fine illustrations of the various plants, as well as a map of the area.

Any ratepayer or sufficiency thereof must be filed with the Secretary-Treasurer of the Village of Killam, on or before the 11th day of October 1950, and if no objections are filed before the said date, the Council will forthwith proceed to pass the said closing By-Law.

Signed,
H. HAYWARD, Mrs. Treas
Village of Killam.

LETTER TO EDITOR

Sedgewick, Sept. 18th, 1950

Dear Mr. Editor:—

I am one of those inactive citizens of our community. As such I am more willing to sit back and let the few willing workers sweat to make our community a more pleasant place in which to live. During the past summer we have observed the progress of the new Memorial Hall. Have we stopped to think of the hours of planning in committees, of the time willingly given to organization work, and of the nights when overactive minds refused to rest. And the effort is for us and our children of the next generation. A community has its unsung heroes

Could each of you have been an observer as I was at a recent Community Council committee meeting, I am sure that we would resolve to be more active citizens. Instead of wishing to be noted for a donation we would make the work of the committee easier by making our donation voluntarily. We would each say to ourself, "What is fifty dollars to me? Five years from now I'll never miss it." And within a few months the Community Memorial Hall will be a standing memorial to those who so bravely and unselfishly served their community

Let us resolve to support in full this community effort. I understand that beginning October 15th a no finance drive is to be launched to boost that date. Can Beairsto Welsh Cooper or Howard Smith will give us a receipt for our donation? I know we are busy, but us is every one else.

We can help too, by being at the community potato patch on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 27th with our picking pails. Let us help those who help us. — A Citizen.

GOLF TOURNAMENT FOR SEDGEWICK CLUB MEMBERS

A mixed two-ball foursome Golf Tournament for Club members will be held this Sunday Sept. 24th starting at 1 or 2 P. M. Tees will be made as players arrive at first tee off. Be on time. Prizes for winners.

GIRL'S CLUB CONVENTION HELD AT OLDS

(By Longhoed Delegate)

We arrived at Olds by bus on Monday in time to be shown to our rooms and have a short rest before supper, after which we were shown around the Olds School of Agriculture by Mr. Yaxel, principal; through the orchards, gardens and barns etc. Then followed a get-acquainted party in the gym. We sang songs, played games and made acquaintances.

The convention officially opened Tuesday morning. Our slogan, "To do all the good we can, in every way we can to all the people we can." Mrs. Robinson, our provincial supervisor, closed this as her topic for h address of welcome. After the executive was introduced the girls were divided into four groups, such a different class. These classes took place each morning from 10 to noon.

Following greetings from the executive after dinner, the handicraft articles were displayed, then time out for supper, followed by sports outside and an amateur program in the gym. P.T. was given early in the morning to strengthen your appetite and limber up stiff limbs from the sports the night before. Wed. morning got away to a good start with community singing, then the yearly reports from the district directors. This included the highlights of each Club for the year. This was followed by each delegate telling the most interesting thing they had accomplished that year. The supervisors met and drew up the next year's program while the girls were at the classes. Mrs. McGorman, Provincial W.I. President, gave a talk on "To days Girls', How girls of today differ from those of her generation in their freedom of clothing, different customs, but stressed that their hearts are the same. Youth of today has confidence in accomplishment, believe nothing impossible. Develop your youth while you have it.

Following this there was a fashion parade and tea. Girls modelled various garments sewn by themselves, after being coached on tastefulness by Miss West. After supper and evening sports was a public speaking contest with a wide variety of topics. Thursday, the last day was spent mostly in electing new officers, and final reports.

Corporal Cunningham, RCMP entertained with a motion picture on the talk on the work of the RCMP told of how easy their work was in the North because until the white man came the Eskimo didn't know how to tell a lie.

After the banquet the prizes were presented for room inspection, public speaking, sports, smartest costume and short story writing contest. The A S W B M T scholarship was announced, being won by Joyce Hall of Obsaton. This gives her half her expenses for one year at either of the Schools of Agriculture.

A very successful convention came to an end. Many new acquaintances and friendships were gained, was brought to a close with a inspirational address by Mrs. ... the first day we were a wee bit nervous about the whole thing, by the time we climbed the bus for home we were really looking forward to next year's convention.

CONTROLLING BANG'S DISEASE PREVENTS FEVER IN HUMANS

(By L.D. Williams, D.A.)

One of the most important aspects in aiming for the eradication of Bang's Disease (Brucellosis) is that humans may become infected and develop undulant fever. Dr. E.E. Ballantyne, Director of Veterinary Services, Alberta Dept. of Agriculture, advises that only three have been several cases diagnosed in humans in Alberta during 1950, one case being reported in Flagstaff M. D. He points out that people can become infected by drinking raw milk from Bang's diseased cattle or by cuts on the hands and arms when handling such animals.

Proper pasteurization will kill the bacteria, rendering the milk safe for consumption, but there is a lot of milk used on farms that is not pasteurized. A blood test of the animal's body a Vet will determine whether they are infected with Bang's or not. This is a second procedure where the raw milk is consumed.

Dr. Ballantyne says that the solution to the whole problem of undulant fever in humans is to eradicate Bang's disease from the cattle population. The main weapon for achieving this goal is calfhood vaccination and good herd management. By this method good herding results is kept to produce calves until such time as vaccinated replacements mature to take the place of reactors.

No cattleman should delay in contacting his Vet at once, to get the calves on the list for calfhood vaccination this year. It takes four to five years to build up a Bang's resistant herd. Start now. The wise buyer is demanding cows and heifers vaccinated as calves. There is a considerable demand right now in Alberta for the Bang's resistant cattle.

Thro' The Window At Lougheed

Walter Hallewand, who has been living at Vancouver B.C., returned to run some his asbestos city connections in the old home town by helping in the harvest fields here. It's nice to see them out too.

Mrs. Hallewand and wife, and Kenton recently but fortunately missing any more accidental accidents on Monday, and spent the week-end with his parents Mr and Mrs. Chas. Harding, visiting daily. We hope people will notice that some gets scarred, they a short routine that there is no such thing as a safe, quiet hill.

Mr. and Mrs F. O'Meara and son arrived last week on the permanent staff at CFL. The O'Mearas are no strangers here, having spent a number here years ago and he has received an editorial promotion. Mr. O'Meara has been loaded for two or three months, in fact ever since the shutdown, it did and we wondered why the delay. But we assume, if you can find some together it might be worth and you know that tomorrow never comes.

The Tennit of Vancouver B.C. is visiting her daughter Mrs. Norris Hodgins and other friends in Lougheed and Hardisty districts.

The 10 o'clock Choral Club, assisted by the Gravel Gerties put on a one act comedy Saturday night over the radio with the hat trick. It was Gray staff they say and that old favorite "Down Where the Budweiser Flows" received many encores. I am sorry that I missed it.

Chet Rowland was taken suddenly ill last week and is a patient in the Royal Alex hospital. His friends after last wishes for a complete and quick recovery. We miss you Chet.

Mr. David Borden spent last week in Edmonton.

The Good West stores, lately managed by Herb Lambeau, has been sold to Mr. J. Hatrick, who is now in charge. We welcome these new comers to our town, while regretting the absence of Herb who we understand is to take up his farming operations for the present.

Mrs Wm. Wright is a patient in the Killam hospital. We hope she will soon be amongst us again.

Little Vonnie mistakenly came for the mail last Saturday. I asked her if Daddy had gone back shooting. She said "No, Daddy gone to Killam." After the week out I realized I didn't know whether she meant Killam town or Killam duck. Oh well if I find a new house of them hanging on my door knob, I'll know.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Norman (Dick) Wright on a son born Sept. 15th at Hardisty.

Last week little Janie Larson, visiting out of Mrs. John Johnson, was fatally scalded when he fell backwards into a boiler of water. His mother had lifted it off the stove. The kid was rushed to hospital and is doing as well as could be hoped but will be a patient for at least 10 days more. It was one of those things you cannot account for. The lad was in another room and the steam from the boiler knocked the mother's glasses preventing her from seeing him when he was in to where she was. Our sympathy to the mother and the lad.

Carl Winger spent last week end in Edmonton with son Conrad and family. Mrs Carl had proceeded before a week which probably accounts for Carl's trip, as a week of bachelorhood is enough for any man.

David Harding is spending his holidays with his parents Mr and Mrs. Chas. Harding who, while still operating the farm, are now residing in Sedgewick. We will miss the Harding's and grandma Ingles but hope to see them often as they travel between their new home and farm, and hope they drop in for a chit chat.

Mr and Mrs Brown and son from Penobs spent last week end with the Albert Whitbecks.
